ed himself, men hid their faces from him, he was rejected and died as a malefactor. But the day came when he rose triumphant over death and the grave, and ascended to his throne. His work done, he went to his reward is saved and exalted by the love of Jesus. "Who are they in white rai-ment before the throne?" These are ment before the throne?" These are they who have come out of great tri-bulations and have washed their robes in the blood of the lamb." This is our position, and this great future should lead us to be pasient here in times of difficulty and trouble. The difficulties must be met and the obstacles must be overcome, but with our strength in God, nothing can nd in the way. Cheerfully, then, let us take up the cross and follow our Lord. He, the head, is in glory, and we, the bedy, must go to him The great thought is there is no barrier, no hindrance in the way. "Cheir mo hindrance in the way. "Christs by Rev E T Fox, who delivered an carnest address from Acts 1:8.

Rev A P McDermaid, of the Foreign Mission board, had charge of the evening worship and delivered what was perhaps, the most stirring and practical discourse of the day, on and practical discourse of the day, the subject of "Fellowship with Jesus Christ." The themes dwelt upon were fallowship with those of testing the fellowship with Christ by our intellectual sympathy with him, thinking as he did on the important question of salvation; our work also will testify as to whether we are in fellowship with him. An earnest exhortation to all, to come into the fellowship with Christ, closed the sermon, which was followed by a number of selections by Rev J J White and daughter, and a voluntary by Miss Racie Boehmer.

Letters to the News-Record [We do not hold ourselves responsible for any opinions advanced by correspondents.]

The service this evening will be an evangelistic one, conducted by Rev J J White and his daughter, and there will probably be a large attendance.

A New Year's Dinner Mr. Phil Davey Entertains

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Davey, of the Walper entertained the guests of the house and a dinner on Sunday afternoon. About 80 guests sat down in the tastily decorated dining half at 1 o'clock to partake of the New Year's hospitality at the hands of the host and hostess, and the "flow of wit and soul" was enjoyed until about 3. New Year's Day at the Young Men's Christian Association Rooms

A Large Number of Visitors:
An Excellent Program

The cosy quarters of the Christian Associa tion of Berlin were made still more invising on New Year's day. The halls and rooms were festooned with evergreens and flags, and a special holiday atmosphere pervaded A large number of visitors dropped in during the day, the evening program being rendered to a crowded house. Supper wa provided by the Ladies' Auxiliany, and after his being done justice to and the game and reading rooms well patronized, program was taken up, which, though brief, afforded genuine pleasure.

Among those who took part were:--H I staebler, who gave a number of piano solos; Messrs W Raymo, C Ruby and L Beer, o In the exhortion of Christ the pledge and assurance is given that his people shall be exa ted, "We shall be as he is." There is nothing more wonderful than that man, sunk and degraded, New Year's address by Mr W C J King Constituted materially to the success of the contributed materially to the success of the program.

DANCING IN THE NEW YEAR

"Ring out the Gld, Ring in the New" are the words of Tennyson, and while the town bells were clanging out the hour of midnig it which anno the year of 1897 naving passed int history, and ushered in the year 1898, there was sound of music and shuffling feet, in the Town Hall, where over 100 young people were tripping the light tantastic.

The ball gotten up by the Old Fire-men was largely attended and mirth and merriment reigned until the small hours of the morning. The music was furnished by Forder's orchestra and Mine Host George of the Market Hotel dined the dancers.

The Saengerbund Ball

The Annual New Year's ball given by the Berlin Saer gerbund was a huge success. Any function gotten up by the Bund is synonynous to success and Friday night's entertainment was no exception. About 90 couple of Berlin and Waterloo young people were present and ushered in the New Year in the erjoyment of the program

The musical part of the evening wa provided by Z egler's orchestra, and the physical wants of the merrymakers were catered to in Mrs Freeman's Dining Parlors. The Committee de-serve credit for the ball, which was entirely devoid of any misbehavior. Mr Chas Dillon officiated as master of
