Sgt. Young's Welcome at Hillsburn

Hillsburn has proudly welcomed home its hero in the person of Sgt. Reginald E. Young, 283409 of the 85th, Nova Scotia Highlanders after three years of glorious service for King and Country.

Sgt. Young joined the colors on the 6th of April, 1916, attaching himself as a private with the 219th Battation later transferred to the 85th. The battalion embarked at Halifax, N. S., and sailed for overseas on the 13th of October the same year. Early in the spring of 1917, after a few months in the different training camps of England, he moved, with his battalion to France, where he received his baptism of fire at the battle of Paschendale. A few months later, in a raid on the Vimy Ridge front, he displayed a bravery that won him the Military Medal. Sgt. Young received slight wounds in this engagement, but, nothing daunted, was soon "doing his bit" with a determination and courage that again brought him distinction. At the battle of Amiens he was awarded a further 'Bar" to his medal, for valor. Then followed the battle of Arras and Cambria, with many minor engage-

On the 24th, of October 1918, after nineteen months of galant service at the battle of Valenciennes Sgt. Young received the wound that almost proved fatal. He with his platoon, were on their way to a much needed rest, when word came of casualties down the line. Reinforcements were badly needed, and he with his men voluteered. On emerging from an old cellar, where an outpost was stationed a machine gun opened and Sgt. Young went down, comrades bore him away; a hurried examination showed the seriousness of his wounds, and he was rushed to the base. As speedily as possible he was removed to England, and placed in the hospital there one 24th, November, 1919 After many serious operations, when life so often hung in the balance, he began gradually to regain his health. He was invalided home on the S. S. Megantic, arriving at Quebec on the 3rd inst, and home on the 5th.

On Friday evening, was given in his honor at the home of his wife's mother, Mrs. James Halliday. The house was tastefully ecorated with Maple Leaves and in seemed as if nature had arrayed hereself for the occasion. A particularly beautiful evening invited his friends to take part in the many festivities. The evening was a very enjoyable one and old friends listened with interest to the vivid stories of "Over There" that Sgt. Young was induced to tell. Favorite songs were sung, interpersed with impromptu readings and speeches Dainty refreshments were served. A pleasing feature of the evening was when Mr. P. W. Halliday, in a few chosen remarks, presented Sgt. Young with a purse of money. Though taken by surprise the recipien responded with a splendid speech thanking all for the Royal welcome given and the kindly way in which they had remembered him. The evening concluded with the sing ing of the National Anthem. Sgt Young was the only soldier, this district to see active from service.
