

subscriptions, and attempted to divert them to Journals across the lines. The publisher is in possession of proofs that would make very unprofitable litigation for one or two of these parties, and a leading Toronto barrister urged him to make use of it, "as one of the best advertisements the Journal could secure."

These gentlemen depend exclusively upon the Canadian profession for their business, and if they do not see fit to make use of the advertising pages, they must at least not attempt to damage its circulation. We thank our friends who have sent us information. If a Canadian Journal is not entitled to Canadian support, neither is a Canadian depot. This Journal is as open to one dealer as another on equal terms. Nobody can conduct a journal to satisfy everybody; but all we ask is fair play. And we shall get it, even if we have to fight for it in the Courts.

To Contributors, Exchanges, and Publishers.

Several letters, exchanges and books for review have been lost, owing chiefly to the fact that they have not been sent to the editor at Montreal. Some one has to do the work of editor-in-chief, and we would thank contributors, exchanges and publishers to direct their material to the editor at Montreal. All letters relating to advertising and all subscriptions must be sent to the publisher only, at Toronto.

An Apology.

Several circumstances have occurred which make it necessary to defer until the next issue a good deal of interesting original matter. The next number will also contain a condensed report of the Union Dental Convention, October 28th to 31st, in Berkeley Hall, corner Berkeley and Tremont Streets, Boston. Fourteen societies will unite at this meeting.

Tit-Bits.

Busy or bothered men, as most of our Dentists are, do not feel like sitting down at the close of day to write elaborate articles for the Journal; but there is hardly one in the profession who could not send us some hint from practice, or some tit-bit of daily experience, that would perhaps be much more useful.
