THE FAMILY TREASURY

OF SABBATH READING.

EDITED BY THE REV. ANDREW CAMERON.
(Formerly Editor of "the Christian Treasury.")

RECOMMENDATORY NOTICES.

The following are a few of the Recommendatory Notices which have already been received by the Publishers.

From the Right Rev. The Bishop of Carlisle.
I think it eminently suited for its object. Cheerful in its tone, varied in its matter, and sound in its doctrine, it must, I think, interest and improve the reader.

From the Rev. J. C. Ryle, Helmingham, Suffolk.

The name of the Editor is a sufficient guarantee for the future character of "THE FAMILY TREASURY." The reading public may confidently expect that in its pages the strict supremacy of Scripture will always be maintained, Christ will have his rightful officers, faith will have its lawful place, the Holy Ghost will be duly honoured, and love towards all who love the Lord Jesus be continually inculcated.

From the Rev. Robert S. Candlish, D. D., Edinburgh.

I thoroughly agree in Dr. Guthrie's recommendation. I have the utmost confidence in Mr. CAMERON'S editorship, and I believe that, under the Divine blessing, he will more than realize, in this New Periodical, the expectations naturally raised by his manner of conducting the "Christian Treasury."

From the Rev. Thomas Guthrie, D. D., Edinburgh.

AUTHOR OF "THE GOSPEL IN EZEKIEL," ETC.
From the very remarkable skill and success with which my friend Mr. Cameron conducted for many years the "Christian Treasury," and to which I have often borne testimony, I had no doubt that the work to which his labours have now been transferred would be equally honourable to him, and useful to the public, and would start at once into the high position to which, among popular religious Periodicals, the "Christian Treasury," attained under his management.

From the Rev. John Caird, A. M., Glasgow, AUTHOR OF "RELIGION IN COMMON LIFE," ETC.
"THE FAMILY TREASURY," more than sustains the high character of the well-known "Christian Treasury," formerly conducted by the Editor of the present Periodical.

Testimonials in favour of the "Family Treasury" have been received also from the following clergymen, viz:—
