

AN UNEQUALLED RECORD

THE

Royal Electric Company

was the FIRST COMPANY in Canada

To make good Transformers

To make and put in use large Transformers

To put into practical operation a Polyphase System

To furnish a perfect Inductor Alternator

To provide a remedy for Ageing in Iron

To conduct its Electrical Manufacturing Business on lines approved of in other Manufacturing Enterprises

To insist upon doing only High Glass Work ; and which had the courage to refuse to make Cheap Apparatus or sell its Product without Profit

300,000 16 c p. Lamps capacity in "S.K.C." Transformers, and 30,000 k.w. capacity in "S.K.C." Polyphase Generators for Lighting and Power sold in Canada since July 1st, 1895.

The Royal Electric Company

MONTREAL

TORONTO