SHEEP.—Extra includes Coverts, and when those of an inferior quality are thrown out.

REMARKS.

CATTLE.—The market has ruled in favor of buyers, and the prices now stand at the quotations of two week's ago. The small number at market last week, and the prospect of a good demand this week, brought twice the number from the Northern States, with from 100 to 1700 from the West at Brighton; and these facts, taken in connection with 1150 Veal Calves at market, made the butchers hold off, and in some cases sales were made at a decline of $1 per cwt from last week's rates.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.—The receipts have been 3014 head—about 1200 head more than last week. Prices have declined fully 3c. per lb. The few spring Lambs at market sold at prices bordering on $8 per head. The Sheep were of various grades; some were extra, whilst others sold as low as 2 3/4c. per lb.
