MR. C. MAITLAND WINTERCORBYN the successful hair-restorer, in presenting thanks for the kind patronage of his numerous friends, wishes also to im-mate to the citizens of Toronto and the public generally, that in consequence of the extent to which his business is daily increasing, he has been obliged to remove to more convenient and commodious premises, where he will have much pleasure in treating professionally all who may favour him with a call.
 N.B.—Consultation free of charge. Send for circulars.

WINTERCORBYN
 VS.
CARBOLINE

Having been afflicted with a bald head for twelve years, which to me was a source of constant regret as I was continually subject to colds and catarrh in the head. Consequently upon my loss of hair, the old told tale for years, I tried every specific article to recover it. Last summer I commenced that much vaunted article called "Carboline." I faithfully used it till April last. Instead of recovering my hair it grew worse. Mr. Wintercorbyn was brought under my notice and parties were pointed out to me whom I knew had been bald for years, and to my astonishment had recovered their hair. Hope again revived, and under Mr. Wintercorbyn's treatment my hair is rapidly recovering its former vigour; what is equally astonishing, I am no longer troubled with colds and catarrh. It affords me very great pleasure in thus testifying to Mr. Wintercorbyn's ability, and I urgently advise my fellow-countrymen instead of patronizing useless American compounds such as Carboline and others which have failed to produce a single case of success in this city, to place themselves at once under Mr. Wintercorbyn's treatment, who needs not to refer to testimonials west of Rocky Mountains but living testimonials can be seen by scores right in our midst.

The Question of Spoons.

When the Government introduced the protective tariff they did so on the principle that "THEY WOULD EITHER MAKE A SPOON OR SPOIL A HORN." The great authorities in Parliament and in the press have not yet decided which result will happen, and some consider it doubtful if it shall ever be unanimously decided. Of more importance, however, to the families of our people—when gathered at their breakfast table quaffing their tea and coffee—of uncertain price—to know that the CELE-BRATED NICKELITE SILVER
 SPOONS are still within their reach.
 The Government laid their hands fearlessly upon the clothing we wear, the food we eat, and the fuel we consume; they taxed by the dollar and by the pound, ad valorem and specific, but "woodman spare that tree," they spared the Nickelite Spoons, by just leaving them among the revenue tariff lists.

These celebrated Sheffield spoons and forks are the result of years of labour, experience and capital. They require, to produce them, heavy and expensive machinery, and they require the world for a market. They are adapted to all climates, from the extreme North to the Sunny South, they stand HARD usage or SOFT, and anyone with a rag and a bit of chalk can make them shine like silver.
 The prices, too, are cheaper than ever.
 Tea Spoons, 90c., $1.50, and $2.00 per dozen; Dessert Spoons or Forks, $3.00, $4.50, and $6.00 per dozen; Table Spoons or Forks, $4.00, $5.50, and $7.00 per dozen. Each article is stamped "Nickelite, R. W. & Co." Ask your storekeeper for them and take none other. Every article guaranteed for five years.

Don't waste your savings on cheap trash, but buy a set of these useful goods, and you will never regret it. To be had of all dealers in the Dominion. Manufacturers, R. WILKES & CO., Beaver Works, Sheffield. Wholesale Agents for Canada, R. WILKES, Toronto and
