

	PAGE
I. RICARDUS CORINENSIS: A LITERARY MASKING OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. By DANIEL WILSON, LL.D., Professor of History and English Literature, University College, Toronto .....	177
II. ON THE STATE OF MEDICAL SCIENCE IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO. By J. N. AGNEW, M.D., Secretary of the Medical Section of the Canadian Institute, and Member of the Medical Council of Ontario, for the Division of Midland and York .....	207
III. NOTES ON THE SILVER LOCATIONS OF THUNDER BAY. By E. J. CHAPMAN, LL.D., Professor of Mineralogy and Geology, University College, Toronto .....	219
IV. CANADIAN LOCAL HISTORY. By the REV. DR SCADDISC, Hon. Librarian to the Canadian Institute .....	227
 PROCEEDINGS OF CANADIAN INSTITUTE:
Annual Report of the Council for the year 1867-'68 Continued .....	262
MONTHLY ABSOLUTE VALUES OF THE MAGNETIC ELEMENTS AT TORONTO. From 1865 to 1868: to be used, with the Annual Means from 1841 to 1868. By G. T. KINOSTON, M.A., Director of the Magnetic Observatory .....	265
 METEOROLOGY:
September Meteorological Table for Toronto .....	xxviii.
Remarks on " " .....	xi.
October Meteorological Table for Toronto .....	xli.
Remarks on " " .....	xlii.
November Meteorological Table for Toronto .....	xliii.
Remarks on " " .....	xliv.
December Meteorological Table for Toronto .....	xlv.
Remarks on " " .....	xlvi.
GENERAL METEOROLOGICAL REGISTER FOR THE YEAR 1868 .....	xlvii.

*.* The Annual Subscription, due in January, Country Members, $3; in Toronto, $4.