PROVINCIAL LUNATIC ASYLUM .- The Provincial Govern4 ment have issued orders for the immediate erection at Toronto, of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum. We are given to understand that seventy acres of land on the Garrison Reserve have though somewhat too hot for personal comfort, highly favoura-ble to the growing crops. The luxuriance of the wheat crop, we learn from every part of the Province, is almost unexampled, The country will be very much gratified at receiving this information; for the erection of and less complaint is heard of the rust and the fly than for many years. The potatoes and sown grasses also promise abundant the waits of the country, has been an object of much solicitude by all, for a considerable time past; and the public will duly apincrease. The demand for Wheat during the week has been confined chiefly to the dealers, who have purchased cautionsly, and only to a moderate extent, and the mid-dling descriptions of Foreign have been offering on somewhat lower terms. Flour has been in dull request, and both sack and barrel, have been easier to purchase; a few hundred barrels of States have been sold at 22s. in bond. Oats have fully maintained last Tuesday's quotations, but the inquiry has been limited. Oatmeal has met with only a retail sale, at the prices of this day week. In all other articles no change has occurred, and the demand has been quite of a retail character. There was a moderete attendance of dealers at our market this morn-ing, but the transactions in Wheat were limited at a decline of M. C.
