R. M. C. CLUB NOTES.

NO. 4

THE LATE CAPTAIN WILLIAM GRANT STAIRS, WELSH REGIMENT.

Cables received in Halifax confirm the report of the untimely death of Captain William Grant Stairs, who died at Chinde, on his way up the Zambesi.

Captain Stairs was born in Halifax, on the 1st of July, 1863, and was partly educated in England. He subsequently successfully passed the entrance examination for the Royal Military College, Kingston, Ontario, and joined as a cadet on the 5th of September, 1878' and graduated on the 27th June, 1882

Stairs was a decided favourite at the college, and among his comrades was recognized for his fondness for athletic sports. He proved himself a good allround man on either the football or cricket ground, and many will remember having made his acquaintance not only at Kingston, but when forming a member of the football team that time and again contested with the Montreal and Brittania clubs for the championship.

On the completion of his course at the Royal Military College, he proceeded to New Zealand, and was employed for a couple of years on the engineering staff or a railway, constructing a line through the bush, and his services there were such as to call forth the praise of those by whom he was employed.

In 1885 the Imperial authorities having offered twenty-six additional commissions to graduates of the Royal
