Winnipeg Notes

F. H. Schofield, for many years in the public school service, and best known as principal of the Central Collegiate, has returned to the city and has joined the staff in the building where he did such good service for so many years. Mr. Schofield was for some years editor of the Western School Journal, and all subscribers will gladly welcome him back, and will hope for an occasional message from his pen.

During the year ending with month of August, 1915, the teachers and members of the Winnipeg school service have contributed and paid into the Winnipeg Patriotic Fund over thirty thousand dollars. This subscription is being renewed for the ensuing school year.

New buildings under construction in Winnipeg are: An eight room unit of a 24 roomed school building is being erected in Elmwood—to be known as the King George V. School. Cost of first unit, $55,000.

An eight room addition to the Luxton School in ward six to relieve overcrowding; cost, $50,000.

The following resignations from the staff have been accepted: Miss E. Brownell; in high schools: Miss M. K. Drummond, Miss Eunice Bell, Miss Kate Crawford, Miss M. C. Turner, Mrs. Brodstedt (supervisor of music), Mrs. F. Carson, Miss Elsie Mitchell, Miss Amy Richardson, Miss Agnes Ban-
