

4. The Government of Cambodia will utilize the equipment and materials furnished by the Government of the United States solely for the maintenance of its internal security and legitimate defense of its territory.

5. The Government of Cambodia will assure the safeguarding and the security of any article, service or technical military information furnished by the United States.

6. The title to or possession of any equipment, materials, information, or services furnished will not be transferred to any person not an officer or agent of the Government of Cambodia, or to a third country, without the prior consent of the competent American authorities.

7. If this equipment is no longer required for the purposes for which it was originally furnished as specified in paragraph 4 of the present Agreement, the Government of Cambodia will return it to the United States or dispose of it in accordance with the wishes of the Government of the United States following the procedures envisaged in Annex B of this Note.

8. Subject to the provision of such appropriations as may be necessary, the Government of Cambodia will make riels available to the Government of the United States which will be used for administrative and operating expenditures necessary for carrying out the purposes of the military aid program. The Government of the United States will furnish to the Royal Cambodian Government appropriate explanations concerning its requirements. The two Governments will consult from time to time to determine the amount of riels to be furnished to the Government of the United States, taking into account the capacity of the Government of Cambodia to furnish such riels.

9. In conformity with the principles of the United Nations, the Government of Cambodia will by mutual agreement furnish to the Government of the United States or to any other Governments, such equipment, materials, services and other assistance as may be mutually agreed upon in order to increase their capacity for individual or collective defense or to facilitate their effective participation in the collective security system contemplated by the United Nations Charter.

10. In addition to the provisions relating to administrative, fiscal and security matters mentioned in Annexes A and B, all other supplementary details relating to procedures and other arrangements which might prove necessary in connection with the furnishing and use of American assistance will be worked out jointly, from time to time, by the two Governments.

The present arrangements will apply to all United States military assistance heretofore furnished or which may be hereafter be furnished to Cambodia by the United States, whether that assistance is received directly from the Government of the United States or transferred in any other manner to Cambodia.

Cambodia or the United States may in writing request revision or, after six months notice, abrogation of the present agreement.

In the event of abrogation, the materials and equipment furnished by the United States will be left at the disposition of Cambodia on the condition that their utilization
