

Year after year the Tyumen Oblast demonstrates its right to be called the country's principal energy raw material base. During the period since local geologists began intensive prospecting here, more than 400 oil and gas deposits have been discovered.

Sovetskaya Rossiya

7 November 1989

Page 2 (full text)