

2. An employed person who is covered under the legislation of one of the Parties and who performs services in the territory of the other Party for the same employer shall, in respect of those services, be subject only to the legislation of the former Party as though those services were performed in its territory. In the case of an assignment, this coverage may not be maintained for more than 24 months without the prior consent of the competent authorities of both Parties.

3. A person who, but for this Article, would be subject to the Canada Pension Plan as well as to the legislation of Jamaica in respect of employment as a member of the crew of a ship or aircraft shall, in respect of that employment, be subject only to the legislation of Jamaica if he is a resident of Jamaica and only to the Canada Pension Plan in any other case.

4. An employed person shall, in respect of the duties of a government employment performed in the territory of the other Party, be subject to the legislation of the latter Party only if he is a national thereof or if he ordinarily resides in its territory. In the latter case, he may, however, elect to be subject only to the legislation of the former Party if he is a national thereof.

5. The competent authorities of the two Parties may, by common agreement, modify the application of the provisions of this Article with respect to any persons or categories of persons.

6. Transitional rules for the application of this Article are provided in the administrative arrangement.

ARTICLE VII

1. Subject to paragraph 2, where, under the terms of this Part, a person other than a person referred to in Article VI 3 and 5, is subject to the legislation of Canada or the comprehensive pension plan of a province, during any period of residence in the territory of Jamaica, that period of residence shall, in respect of that person, his spouse and dependants who reside with him and do not occupy employment during that period, be treated as a period of residence in Canada for the purposes of the Old Age Security Act.

2. Any period during which a spouse or a dependant referred to in paragraph 1 is subject, by reason of employment, to the legislation of Jamaica, shall not be treated as a period of residence in Canada for the purposes of the Old Age Security Act.

3. Subject to paragraphs 4 and 5, where, under the terms of this Part, a person other than a person referred to in Article VI 3 and 5, is subject to the legislation of Jamaica during any period of residence in Canada, that period of residence shall not be treated as residence in Canada for the purposes of the Old Age Security Act, in respect of that person, his spouse and dependants who reside with him and are not employed during that period.
