International Trade Minister Peter Van Loan to Expand Trade Opportunities in India

Harper government continues to open new markets for Canadians

(No. A/169 - November 12, 2010) The Honourable Peter Van Loan, Minister of International Trade, will visit India from November 14 to 18, 2010. India is one of the world's fastest-growing markets. Enhancing and securing trade opportunities there for Canadian business is a key initiative for the Harper government.

Minister Van Loan will focus on expanding trade and investment opportunities across India while visiting the cities of Delhi and Mumbai.
