Bosnia	Information Campaign on the Dayton Peace Agreement	A television campaign is being implemented with the support of the international community in order to sensitize the Bosnian population on the implementation of the Dayton Peace Agreements. This campaign contains TV spots and programs to highlight the advantages of the peace agreements, which are still little known and supported inside Bosnia (especially Republika Srpska) despite broad international support.	Office of the High Representative	400,000
Rep. Srpska	Support to Republika Srpska	Support is being provided to consolidate the first pro-peace government of Rep. Srpska. When the first pro-peace government came to power in Republika Srpska in January 1998, it inherited major economic problems left over by the previous government. Canada shares in an international effort to help sustain that government in the short-term, therefore giving the authorities the chance to advance the peace agenda in that key region of Bosnia.	Office of High Representative	1,000,000
