Mr. Blais, Parliamentary Secretary to the President of the Privy Council, presented,—Return to the foregoing Order.

RULING BY MR. SPEAKER

MR. SPEAKER: Yesterday the honourable Member for Scarborough East (Mr. O'Connell) raised a question of privilege concerning the publication of the draft report of the Special Joint Committee on Immigration Policy. I wish to reiterate at the beginning of my observations today the point I made yesterday and which was referred to by all who took part in the discussions, namely, that the House guards the confidentiality of draft reports of this nature at this stage of a committee's proceedings and the publication of such a report would raise the strongest suggestion that some act has taken place which offends the privileges of the House.

The difficulty about the motion before us is not that it fails to deal with what appears to be a well accepted question of privilege in general terms but rather that it fails to be sufficiently specific. I refer to the absence from the motion of any allegation of misconduct which is specifically complained of in terms of a breach of the privileges of the House. Has there been an action by the publisher of the newspaper involved, or by the radio or television station, which constitutes a breach? The motion does not say. Has there been an action by a Member of the House of Commons or by a member of the
