

ON

MAGAZINE.

the most valuable matter
articles, the personal
ess, results of valuable
ing travels, and light
d, and form a most

ays a welcome visitor.
able and important
o any peculiar distinc-
to them. Independent
ss of sterling reading
appreciate."—Morning

Services that patronize Standard.

of readers who hover
pains to inform them-
s, the movements and
is periodical is indis-
s—narratives of past
were true—tables and
pon the army and the
and sundry unclaimed
ofessions, and contriormation."—Atlas.

the repository of excel-
spect to the science, nches of the Service.
ent events relating to
branch of our army,
East India Company.
us subjects is most

the magazines, con-
military reader, but to
sketches of manners,
of the most popular
, its lists of the posts
re of the last utility, er excellent feature."

HERS,

THE KINGDOM.