Haughton Lennox, who brought up the matter, stated that the amendment by Mr. Sealey contained no such general endorsation of the reciprocity agreement, and pointed out that the Hansard report did not contain the words which had been attached to it by The Globe. He described it as a deliberate, inexcussable falsification, an absolutely untruthful and unfounded statement, as standardous statement that goes beyond the pale of anything we have had in parliament for some time. The Conservative members had evinced their fhoro opposition to the reciprocity proposals, yet. The Globe had construed it as a Conservative vote for reciprocity. A Terrible Alternative. "Going on our present plan, our navy must eventually work up to a fourth or fifth power; that is, if we would be independent. We must make our choice, and be part of the British Empire, or else something so terrible that I don't wish to think of it. We must choose whether we shall work on the plans of the people to the south, the Chinese and Japanese, and the Germans, with a great standing army and navy, or else become a part of the British tish navy, and do our duty as that.

"I can imagine Canada as a part of the British Empire and yet having her own navy, but I cannot imagine such a condition lasting any length of time. "Our fate lies with Britain, and Britons, feeling this, flatter us too much. We may not be such a great part of the confederated empire, but rather only an integral part. We must keep the Union Jack floating over us with its high standard of civilization, or else we must die. That, as a Canadian, is my vision of our future. Else we will

MESSAGE OF CHEER FOR TIRED WOMEN

Mrs. George Butler Finds Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Farmer's Wife Who Was Weak, Nervous, and Suffering From Back-ache, Tells Her Suffering Sisters How to Become Well.

PAQUETVILLE, N.B., April 24 .-(Special.) -- It is a message of cheer that Mrs. George Butler, wife of a wellknown farmer living near here, sends

"My trouble was brought on by hard work," Mrs. Butler states. "For four years I suffered from pain in the back. I was always tired and nervous. My head ached, and I had dark circles under my eyes, which were also puffed and swollen. I had flashes of light and floating specks before my eyes, and was generally in a run-down con-
