The Daily Hint From Paris

OF SUMMER WHITE RATINE.

The beauty of this dress is the careful smoothness, with which all the parts are put together. The bodice is in front, but so cleverly managed with snaps that the trimming band seems stitched flat. The skirt has narrow tucks at the top with buttons, covered with the material, for trimming. The color is chocolate brown with yoke of black pongee. A black leather belt is worn.

bride, the Misses Elsie and Constance Heaps, attended her, gowned alike in pale blue poplin with blue picture hats and carrying evening bags. The Rev. Hugh Hooper, North Vancouver, uncle of the bride, supported the groom. The service was fully choral and the ceremony was performed by the bride's father. Two very old friends of Mr. Hooper, Col. Laurence Herchmer, late commissioner of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, and also Mr. Hooper's late commanding officer, and Mr. Fairwell, signed the register, during which the choir sang "Perfect Love." After the ceremony the party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a large reception was held. Later the bride changed her bridal gown for a tailor made suit of navy blue cloth, with smart hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left on the afternoon train on their way east. They will be away about three months and will visit "Duncraig," Mr. Jackson's old home in Toronto. They will also visit Muskoka and other places, returning to Vancouver in the autumn to reside in their pretty new home in North Vancouver.

Casserole Cooking

In England, as well as America, housewives are learning the advisability of cooking in casseroles. A leading London writer on domestic topics says: "The casserole is not used half enough in England, but women are coming to realize that meat which might be tender when roasted becomes very satisfactory when cooked in a casserole. The use of a casserole means much to the woman of moderate means, because the left-overs and odds and ends of vegetables and meat may be cooked so deliciously in it. Casseroles are inexpensive and, as they may be used as serving dishes on the table, save dishwashing also."

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Take special care of your health and try to avoid small illnesses, for they may result in more serious ones. Caution in all departments of your daily life is the message for the following year.

Those born to-day will have impulsive natures and will be likely to imitate other people, whether good or bad. They should be led away from the habit and taught to have an individuality of their own.

Seasonable Recipes

Bread Horns.

Sift and beat 5 cups of bread flour, add 3 well beaten eggs, 1 cup of milk, 1-2 cup of soft butter, a level teaspoonful of salt and 1-2 yeast cake dissolved in two tablespoonfuls of milk. Beat the batter until it blisters, cover and let rise until twice its size. Roll out and cut in squares about two inches each way and about one inch thick. Pull out opposite corners of the bread and roll between the palms of the hands, then curve round like horns. Rub with butter, cover and let rise about an hour or until light, then brush over with the white of an egg, beaten with a tablespoon of water and sprinkle with granulated sugar. Bake in a quick oven 15 or 20 minutes.

Salmon Chops.

Drain the oil from a can of salmon, remove the skin and bones, separate the fish into fine flakes and add sifted cracker crumbs to make stiff enough to mould. Season with salt and pepper, add 1 cup thick white sauce and shape like lamb chops, using a piece of muslin for the bone. Dip in beaten egg, then in cracker crumbs and fry in deep hot fat.

Raised Biscuit.

One quart milk, 3-4 cups of butter (half and half is good), 3-4 cup of yeast, 2 tablespoonfuls white sugar, 1 teaspoonful salt, flour to make a soft dough; mix over night, warming the milk slightly and melting the butter. In the morning roll out into a sheet 5-6 of an inch thick; cut into round cakes; set them closely together in a pan; let them rise 20 minutes; bake 20 minutes.

Tomato Toast.

Heat one can of tomatoes, season with a level teaspoonful of salt, a saltspoon of pepper, one rounding tablespoon of sugar, a level tablespoon of butter, and cook all together quarter of an hour. Toast half a dozen slices of bread, melt one ounce of butter on a plate and pour the hot tomato over and serve very hot.

Caramel Ice Cream.

Heat 2 cups of milk, add 3-4 cup of sugar and the beaten yolks of 3 eggs. Cook until it thickens, then add 1 cup of cream, and just as soon as it reaches the scalding point set aside to cool. Melt 1-2 cup of sugar in a small pan, and when it turns brown add carefully 2 cup of water and cook until a syrup is formed. Add the syrup to the cream and 1 teaspoon of vanilla. Cool and freeze.

TEA SANDWICHES

Sandwiches that will not dry out can be made of firm soda crackers and cold boiled bacon. Slice the bacon very thin, oiling. For immediate use, lettuce or cream can be put in the middle, or the crackers spread thinly with French dressing. For afternoon tea use any of the round sweet crackers, with rounds of sliced apple dipped in syrup laid between.

BALL FRINGE.

The use of the dainty ball fringe seems to grow more and more timely. It is extensively employed on summer frocks, coats, etc., and for house gowns, turbans and summer wraps it makes a delightful trim.

BISHOPS CANNOT RIGHT MATTERS

Breach at St. Hilda's Is Now Incapable of Healing—Dis-senters Prepare to Hold Services Elsewhere.

St. Hilda's congregation have not as yet succeeded in finding a way out of the troubles which have beset the flock now for several months. Rev. Mr. Scott has left to look over the parish at Holland Landing, to which he has been assigned, but has not notified the Toronto authorities whether or not he will accept the appointment. By arrangement with the wardens at that place Mr. Scott will conduct next Sunday's services there.

Meanwhile the dissenters at St. Hilda's are preparing to hold regular services in Bantley Hall until a new and independent church can be built. Only 14 parishioners attended the authorized service in the church last Sunday. The Methodists and Baptists are taking advantage of the unsatisfactory situation at Fairbank and have established missions there.

The dissenters are looking for a suit of building, and it looks as if the breach with the bishop is now past. "It is not so much the removal of Mr. Scott that we object to," one of his supporters told The World in a recent interview, "but the way in which it was contrived. The principle that we are against, that allows a rate to be discharged at any time and no cause given for his removal."

PLENTY OF MUSIC AT EXHIBITION

Scots Guards Band Will Be Big Feature — Many Bands From Canada and the States.

That music is to be a prominent feature of the Canadian National Exhibition this year is evidenced by the fact that the management have engaged two famous English bands to alternate on the main band stand during the entire two weeks of the fair.

The Scots Guards' Band is, of course, the big attraction. It is the third of the famous bands of the brigade of Guards that the exhibition management has brought across the ocean, and in concert music it excels either of the others. Bandmaster Wood has made his reputation with the Scots Guards, as under his leadership the band has achieved greater popularity both with the public and the critics than at any previous time in the history of its history.

"The Bees of 'th' Barn" is a purely brass organization, and the only one of its kind to make a success. However, its success is beyond question, as it has been received enthusiastically in almost every civilized country. It figures in Devonshire history for over a hundred years.

With these two bands alternating there will be an almost continuous concert of high-class band music on the plaza from noon till 10 o'clock at night. Bands from Canada and the United States will occupy the entrance band stand.

Ministers' Stay Is Nearing End

LONDON, Aug. 6. (C. A. P.)—Hon. Messrs. Pelletier and Doherty return to Canada on Aug. 16. Mr. Hazen leaves on the 21st. The date of Premier Borden's return is uncertain owing to the amount of business still to be completed. It is probable, however, that he will leave on the 24th or 25th. In an interview to-day Mr. Borden paid tribute to the debating strength of the commons and to the earnestness with which imperial matters are discussed. He was present for the greater part of the debates on the supplementary naval estimates and the imperial defence committee, in which Asquith, Grey, Churchill, Balfour and Bonar Law took part. The absence of controversial party spirit in regard to great questions of imperial interest was, he said, particularly noticeable and impressive.
