FUEL MUST NOT BE HOARDED BY ANYONE

Fuel Commissioner Harris took action yesterday to stop hoarding on coal by private citizens. When it came to his attention that some citizens were ordering coal, altho their bins held a supply good for at least two months, he issued the following statement, backing it up with advertisements in the newspapers:

"It has come to my attention that a large number of people in Toronto with ample fuel supplies on hand are hoarding and securing delivery of further quantities of fuel. In many instances the men delivering have had to trim back the coal in the bins to make room for a further quantity.

City of Toronto will be asked to make further contributions to the patriotic and other funds. The wives and dependents of the soldiers need all the support possible, and this is assured them by those who must stay at home.

I hope that before the year is out everyone will have great cause for rejoicing in the knowledge of the fact that the war is over, and the cause we have fought for is triumphant.

DEBATE IS POSTPONED.

The Methodist Ministerial Association, at a meeting in the Wesley Buildings yesterday, listened to an address by Rev. J. W. Stuart on the proposed general conference changes. A general discussion followed the address, but it was decided to postpone the final debate on the subject until the first meeting in March.

BRIDEGROOM GETS DAMAGES. Gananoque Man Awarded Five Thou-sand for Alienation of Wife's Affections.

Justice Clute yesterday awarded as damages $5000 to George R. Webb, merchant, of Gananoque, in the action damages $5000 to George R. Webb, merchant, of Gananoque, in the action brought by Mr. Webb against his bride's parents for $20,000 damages for the alienation of his wife's affections. According to the story set out, the plaintiff was a young man of 30 when he married the daughter of W. V. and Agnes Bullock of Gananoque, and it was claimed that the defendants induced. persuaded and procured Dora B. Webb, his wife, to leave the plaintiff and by their acts alienated from the plaintiff the affections of his wife. The story of the parents was to the effect that their daughter was in a weak physical and mental condition following a serious operation, and did not appreciate or realize what she was doing, but afterwards when she did realize what she had done she refused to live with her husband.

Winnipeg, Dec. 31.—Hon. Edward Brown, provincial treasurer, left saturday night for Ottawa and other eastern sections in connection with public business.

It is understood that Mr. Brown will interview Sir Thomas White in regard to the recent federal regulation requiring provinces and municipalities to secure a permit before place.
