ONLY TWO FAVORITES
WIN AT NEW ORLEANS

Handicap Declared Off Owing to Heavy Going and Card Cut to Six Races.

New Orleans, La., March 8.—The torment-like storm which visited the track on early hour this morning changed the track to a veritable quagmire, and as a result of the carded starters were of the varied variety, the excellent program originally provided was reduced to an unrecognizable state. The result, the General Handicap, in which a number of good sprinters were slated to contest, had to be called off because all but Co-loss and Duke of Latona declined the race. This would have left the race a virtual walkover for Cobalt Lass, and the management deemed it wise to declare the race off. No other race was scheduled, making it a six-race card instead of the intended seven-race offing. Capt. Dodge and Bombast were the only favorites to win. Summary:
