the final result.

The final result when the property of the class were followed unchanged, but no export sales were reported and it was claimed Germany had bought no wheat since last Friday. Threshing returns from the Northwestern States were of both kinds; some claim 4 to 3 bushels to the acre, while others 20 to 28. Outside markets were relatively stronger than Chicago. Export clearances: Wheat and flour were large at 86,000 bushels, while primary receipts and shipments were just about the same as last year.
