WORK ACCIDENTS. THE OLD RELIABLE

William B. Wilson, Toronto Junction, Car Inspector, Fatally Injured in C.P.R. Yards.

BOY INJURED BY A TRUCK OF BRICK. Percy Barrett Lowers the Golf Record at the Lambton Links—25 Carloads of Stock Arrive.

Toronto Junction, July 15.—An accident, which subsequently proved fatal, happened in the C. P. R. yards about 10 o'clock this morning. The victim was William B. Wilson, 110 Pacific-avenue, a car inspector for upwards of 20 years. An engine without a tender was standing on the track, and he, in company with another employe, sat on the running board in the rear, expecting the engine to go forward and take them in the direction of the train he was to inspect. The engine, instead of going forward, started back, and the other employe put up his legs, but Wilson let his touch the ground, and was at once doubled up under the running board. The engine had passed over him, and he was killed.
