HOCKEY.

A FAST, "SCRAPPY" GAME. After over an hour of heavy stick wielding, some "scrappy" interludes. and lightning-like work in general, the London Seniors defeated the Woodstock hockey aggregation on Saturday night at the Princess Rink by a close score of 6 to 5. Those who saw the contest have no reason for complaint. There wasn't an uninteresting moment in it. "Scrappy" scenes at critical times tightened the tension of interest, and enthusiasm at many stages vented itself in the wildest demonstrations of excitement. The visitors adopted the roughest kind of tactics on record, but as a matter of fact, London was not far behind in this respect. It appeared as if both teams were seeking a few scalps as well as hockey honors. But despite the heavy body checking and slugging, the teams at times worked nicely together, and made some pretty combination plays. Hockey and shinney are arranged on different principles, and when London takes to the latter they will not forget to arrange a match with Woodstock. Referee Macbeth understands his business, but he was too lenient with both teams, although he did lay off some eight men for short periods. Some of the visitors played viciously, and sent a number of the home team to the ice on deliberate "trips." The spectators said some nasty things about them, and appealed strenuously to have some of them ruled off. Speaking in general terms of the game, it was one of the fastest, and one of the roughest, witnessed this season. The players were in excellent form, and fatigue was hardly ever noticeable. The visitors were late in arriving, and the game was not called until 8:30, when the teams lined up as follows: Woodstock.

London. Johns.......Goal ......McLurg Reid.....Point.....Howell Brown, capt....Cover point...Wilkinson Gilmore......Forward .......Miller

London got the puck, but lost to Woodstock, who made a rush and attempted to score, but Johns neatly saved a goal. The rubber was then sent dangerously close to the Woodstock flags, with the combined home team pressing hard. A struggle followed, which resulted in the puck being centered. Some hard scrimmaging and clever passing brought it again to on a rush, after eight minutes' play.

At the resumption of play London got an easy shot, but miscalculated. Woodstock resorted to slashing right and left. London followed with a spell of "shooting," but Woodstock guarded well. Matters were suddenly changed, however, and Woodstock attacked, and soon sent the rubber through for goal number two. It was decidedly rough on the home enthusiasts to see their pets being touched up in this manner, but a change was in order. The home team forwards secured the rubber, and made some pretty passes, which resulted in Ewing scoring after one min-

Both forward lines shone brightly in the next game. The puck was carried towards Woodstock's end, but Howell relieved. It was rushed back, and Brown sent it through for the visitors, after three minutes' play.

The match was quickly resumed, with London playing a remarkably hard, close game. They kept continually pressing the visitors' goal in splendid style. Brown and Hobbs took the puck down, passed to Ewing, who made a pretty shot at goal, scoring London's second game.

The next game was a hard and even centest, and occupied seven minutes. Some lively scrimmaging took place, keeping the rubber well centered. Gilmore made a grand rush down the ice. Howell checked, but Hobbs put it through. This tied the score, and the C. W. Davis, rink fairly shook with round after W. H. Crane, round of applause; but when London W. T. Strong, followed with another goal in one minute's play, the crowd was wildly en-Gilmore made a pretty shot, and the forwards rushed it through. Brown, of Woodstock, and Westcott, of London, were laid off at this point for heavy body checking, and Galloway and Hobbs were ruled off a few moments later for the same offense. Half time-4 to 3 in London's

On resuming play in the second half, the teams showed that they were evenly matched, Woodstock tieing the score in short order, on a clever rush by Miller and Galloway, and a pretty and the London and Glencoe rinks won shot by Brown. Reid and Galloway were ruled off for heavy checking.

London's Senior Hockey Team London's goal looked dangerous, but a rush all together was effective, and sent the rubber to the visitors' defense. A clever bit of combination followed, and London scored.

The visitors pulled themselves to-gether in quick style, and made a couple of sharp attacks, and after eighteen minutes' lively play had put it through the home team's defense, again tieing the score.

London then struck a winning gait, and their forwards justified their reputation. The line of four went down the ice together in grand style, sending the puck from side to side, past Howell and Wilkinson, and when clear of these Ewing shot and scored, after two minutes' play. This ended the scoring, the game ending 6 to 5 in London's

NOTES.

Sarnia next! The attendance was large. London has the best team in years. The visitors can out-skate London

It was anybody's game until the gong sounded. The visitors play a great game, and are very fast skaters.

Howell, the outsider, played a star game for Woodstock. More enthusiasm was displayed than at any previous game.

Brown, captain of the Woodstock team, had his face badly cut. Reid made some decidedly rough plays. He was ruled off twice. Referee Macbeth gave general satisfaction. He was kept busy dodging the players. Brown, of London, played a star game. His lifting and rush work were a feature of the game.

London's forward line — Gilmore, Ewing, Hobbs and Westcott-is a cracker-jack. They can't be beat. Howell, who played with Woodstock, belongs to Paris, and has played with three different teams here this season. AT MONTREAL.

Montreal easily defeated Ottawa in the championship hockey series on Saturday night by five games to one.

AT WATERLOO. The Preston woolen mills' hockey team journeyed to Waterloo Saturday and played a friendly game of hockey with the Waterloo woolen mills. The score was 8 to 2 in favor of Water-

CHATHAM THE WINNER. Detroit, Jan. 30.-The international bonspiel came to an end Saturday even-Chatham proved to be the winner of the day's contests of single rinks for the Russell House trophy; all but one of the primaries had been played for. The one remaining was between

After the eleventh end between Chatham and Thamesville, the former was 8 up, and Thamesville gave up, having no chance to tie Chatham in the round, the final score being: Chatham 13, Thamesville 5. When the play began President Davis, of the Detroit Curling Club, presented the Walker trophy and eight gold medals to the winners of the first prize, the Sarnia rink. Many neat and friendly speeches were made, expressing a strong desire for a reciprocity treaty with Canada.

Next Tuesday the contests in the division for the Ontario Tankard will be played at Windsor. The contestants will be: Detroit, Windsor, Chatham, Glencoe, Thamesville, and St. Thomas

The Detroit Free Press says: "Skip Strong, of the London Forest City Club, performed the very remarkable feat of curling two stones in succession the entire length of the rink, with the handles down. winners of the first prize. Great disappointment was felt over the failure of Stratford and St. Marys clubs to show up, as they are experts with the stones and brooms.

The Embro curlers met with a succession of ill-luck during the bonspiel which is in striking contrast to the remarkable showing they made in the competition two years ago.

As showing the exigencies of the game, an unlooked for raise of a stone by Skip Mackenzie, of Sarnia, on the last end of their first game with Embro enabled them to win out by one shot and eventually carry off the first

Skips McGibbon and Mackenzie, of the Sarnia club, owe much of their success in landing the Walker cup to their able assistants. Vice-Skip John Chester, a veteran curler, played throughout their several contests with remarkable skill and reliability. Skip Scofield, of Chatham, was the most generous curler attending the bonspiel. Not satisfied with the prospect of his opponents counting seven in one end, he gratuitously helped in the only stones Sarna had outside of the ring, making it an eight end.

SKATING. RACES AT POUGHKEEPSIE.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan 30.-National championship races here concluded Saturday afternoon, with two fine contests, one for the national championship at 10,000 meters, and the other at one mile for the Hudson River valley championship. Before the card was taken up there was a match race for the gold medal, offered by Manager Robinson, between Fred Hemmet, of Brooklyn, and George Hare, of New York. Hemmett had decidedly the best of it, and on the last lap his opponent dropped out of the race. Hemmet's time was 6:32 2-5. The 10,000 meters was the chief event of the afternoon. The Canadians, Pilkie and Drury, made a heroic effort to win the national but neither one was fast enough. By mutual agreement Thomas Gibb and Saeger paced the race to the last two laps. Then McClave, who last two laps. Then McClave, who had been trailing along in fourth place, and saving himself, made one of his phenomenal spurts, and went ahead of everybody. Thomas, Pilkie and Gibbs dropped back with the bunch, while Saeger and Perkins forged ahead to the second and third places, finishing
