at the Grand again today and for the remainder of the week, a multitude of the fashionable modiste's most modern creations are shown. In the opening scenes of the picture, before it becomes a purely symbolical story of life itself, a bazaar is shown that is said to be a veritable fashion show. The gowns are exquisite and of varying character. Evening costumes of the finest of materials are features of the gaming-room, Palace of Wealth, and other ornate scenes.

The power of a Mexican senorita's jealousy of an American girl in love with an American army officer is the underlying theme in this stirring drama of the Mexican border, which is from the famous novel of N. P. Niessen, "The Love Thief."

Action—and more action—of the rapid-fire sort permeates the development of the plot. There's not a dull moment in the entire show, which is calculated to stir the most phlegmatic

PLEDGED SUPPORT TO $25,000 MONEY BYLAW

INGERSOLL, June 22.—By a unanimous standing vote, the ratepayers at a public meeting tonight pledged their support to a bylaw which will be voted upon Friday, July 2. The bylaw grants a loan of $25,000 to the Dominion Cone Company, Limited, and the Folding Paper Box Company, Limited, both under one management. Mayor Henderson who presided, spoke strongly in son, who presided, spoke strongly in favor of the proposed bylaw.

For the loan the company agree to give security to the value of $55,000 and to repay the loan in ten years with interest at the rate of 6½ per cent annually.

Following the inquiry made last night at the council meeting on behalf of a citizen by Ald. Lampkin, as to why ex-Mayor J. V. Buchannan was a member of the deputation which went to Toronto in connection with industrial matters, and received the sum of $4 as part of his expenses, Mr. Buchannan at tonight's meeting returned the $4, and onlight's interest by the proposed by speaking in support of the proposed by-law, said he wished "the $4 citizen" to know that he was loyal enough to the town in which he was born to keep on trying to obtain new industries for the town, even if it cost him $500 to do so.
