METHODISTS URGED TO VOTE TEMPERANCE

Central District Churches Pass a Strong Resolution How Congregations Are Faring.

A strong temperance resolution was adopted by the Central District Methodist Association at the annual meeting yesterday as follows:

"That whereas a great wave of moral reform manifests itself in universal Christendom, notably in the proposed legislation in the British house of commons against the national vice of intemperance, and the tidal wave of local opinion sweeping all over the United States of America, and that in the marked discontent of this province with the three-fifths handicap on the temperance electorate and utter dissatisfaction with the evils arising from the bar with its discredited treating system, therefore resolved:

(1) That all Methodist electors be urged to take a lively and patriotic interest in selecting and electing from time to time methods, and morally qualified men to exit and bless this young nation;

(2) That a conscientious and firm resolve be recorded against the un-British three-fifths legislation;

(3) That in their opinion, legislation to remove the bar and the treating system would be deservedly popular with the mass of Ontario electors."

Reports from the various churches showed a satisfactory condition. The total membership of the centre district is $830, an advance of $32, although $13,078 was raised for missions, an increase of $769, for connexional funds, $19,739 was raised, an increase of $1167, and for circuit purposes $21,104 was subscribed, an increase of $3022 over last year.

Rev. A. P. Bruce, D.D., of Richmond Hill, was elected to represent the district on the stationing committee to act with the chairman, Rev. T. E. Bartley, at the conference. The officers for the district will be elected at the conference and Queen-street Methodist Church was chosen for the next meeting place.

Some criticism fell to the lot of Mr. Merino for having given up his superintendency of the Italian mission without due warning to become police court interpreter.

A recommendation will be carried to the conference that impoverished country charges be not urged too much for increased contributions to the connexional fund, because in many cases it results in the stinting of pastors' salaries to a disgracefully low figure.

President Rev. T. C. Bartley presented a pleasing report from his church on Elm-street, where the financial ratings had increased from $9000 a year ago to $13,000 this year. Ninety per cent. of his people, he said, were from boarding houses and they averaged $12 each.

Rev. C. O. Johnston's Queen-street church didn't report so well, and the pastor explained that the district was losing its most liberal members. Men who were wont to put $2 on the plate every Sunday were moving northward.

Statistical reports were presented at the Methodist district meeting for East Toronto district at the Metropolitan Church yesterday. The financial report showed that the general contributions to missions during the past year were $28,410, as compared with $17,784 the previous year, an increase of $10,626. The membership in the district showed an increase for the year of 360. Rev. S. W. Dean was appointed to represent the district on the stationing committee.

It is wise to be forewarned for the happenings of the day by fortifying yourself with a knowledge of what the other fellow is doing. The membership in the district delivered before breakfast. Telephone orders received at Metro 252.

LOOKS LIKE A THIRD VOTE ON THE POWER CONTRACT

Aldermen Seem Prepared to Put City to the Expense of Another Ratification.

HAMILTON, May 28.—(Special.)—Hamilton will sign a contract to take hydro-electric power. In the face of the temper of the ratepayers the very most that the contract ratification can do is to vote for another reference of the question to the ratepayers. It appears probable that a majority will go that length to-morrow evening when a special session of council will be held to settle the question. Many of them would go further, however. The ratepayers have already passed two bylaws in favor of signing a contract with the commission, and there is no doubt that they will pass a third, and wait until next January to get back at the aldermen who are responsible for putting the city to the expense of submitting a bylaw to the people to ask them if they really meant it when they voted twice before in favor of taking power from the commission.

There is some chance that the friends of the hydro-electric power will be able to-morrow evening to carry a motion in the council to make a contract with the commission at once. Mayor Stewart has not given any hope of bringing this about. He has promised that if a contract with the commission is formed the city will be able to buy the power at one-quarter of what they are now. This means that it would be within the reach of practically every citizen of Hamilton. If the people want this boon, his worship says that it is up to them to get after their representatives who are now trucking to the contract.

Frank Pense, an Italian, had his ankle broken at the steel plant this afternoon.

The new pastor of Knox Church, Rev. A. E. Mitchell, Ottawa, was inducted this evening by Rev. Dr. Fletcher. Rev. Thos. McLachlan, preached. Rev. John Young addressed the pastor, and Rev. H. Grey, Dundas, the people.

The Ontario Medical Association this afternoon passed a resolution expressing its hearty approval of the Ontario Government's proposal to establish a psychiatric clinic in connection with the hospitals for the insane and to appoint a lunacy commission or board of alienists who alone could give expert testimony in courts in cases of insanity and also requesting that reform in civil service be instituted so that no one shall be appointed a medical superintendent of an asylum without experience. Some 85 new members were added to the roll of the association.

Sudden Death. Mrs. George Clelland, Carlisle, fell from a chair in the store of the G. W. Robinson Co. this morning and expired almost immediately of heart disease.

Rev. Dr. Wilbur Chapman, the New York evangelist, has declined to visit Hamilton, because he thinks the people and the ministers of the city are a little too critical. It is said that some objection was taken to the manner of his assistants. Those behind the movement here did not favor sensational methods, and the evangelist did not want to be hampered in any way.

William Miller was sent down for 23 months this morning for stealing a couple of bicycles. Mike Baxter, supposed to be an expert sneak thief from Detroit, was found guilty of theft and remanded for sentence. The magistrate said the sentence would be severe.

In reply to a statement credited to John Gilhe that he could not see why workmen should support Allan Studholme, M.L.A., who was helping to introduce a bill to amend the liquor law, he says: "The provincial legislature does not fix the tariff. I can explain why the moderate are responsible for it. They have been importing stoves made in the United States and New South Wales, 1200 bales, scoured, 10 1/2 to 14 1/2; greasy, 40 to 10 1/2."

It has been discovered that the G. T. R. has no right on the beach, and has been charged $500 a year by the government for the use of its right of way across the beach. It will also be prevented from collecting rents for passage across the tracks.

London Wool Markets. LONDON, May 28.—At the wool sales to-day, 1217 bales were offered. Spinners' competition was followed by good general buying at full values. Large supply of cross-bred met with a ready sale, the home trade buying largely. Americans took a supply of light greasy super-cross-breds. The sales were as follows:

10 1/2 to 14 1/2; greasy, 40 to 10 1/2. Queensland, 100 bales, scoured, is 3 1/2 to 12 1/2; greasy, 10 1/2 to 13 1/2. Victoria, 1200 bales, scoured, is 2d to 10 1/2; greasy, 10 1/2 to 13 1/2. New Zealand, 300 bales, scoured, is 2 1/2 to 9 1/2; greasy, 3 1/2 to 9 1/2. New Zealand, 300 bales, scoured, is 2 1/2 to 9 1/2; greasy, 3 1/2 to 9 1/2.

Bodies at Port Huron. PORT HURON, May 28.—Bodies of Mrs. James Creighton and her two children, Katherine and Claire Chapman, who were murdered in Owen Sound, Ont., arrived at noon and were immediately conveyed to the home of Judge Harris, father of the dead woman. The remains were accompanied by William P. Craighead.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, and the services will be conducted by Rev. S. H. Beaton of the Episcopalian church, who is the minister, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harris, who were the mother and grandmother of the victims, who have been in a serious condition since early this morning, has not been told of the arrival of the bodies.

OBITUARY.

Robert Burns of Toronto leaves today for New York to attend the funeral of the late Mr. David Graham. Mr. Burns goes as representative of the Canadian Orangemen.

The late Mr. Graham was a past imperial grand master of the Imperial Orange Council of the World and was probably the most enthusiastic Orangeman in the United States. Before leaving Toronto Bro. Burns sent a telegram to the Supreme Grand Lodge of British Columbia, now in session at Midland, conveying information of Bro. Graham's death. The funeral will be held on Sunday next from his home in Weehawken, N. J., U. S. He had an interesting career as an Orange general and was present at the riot which occurred on Eighth-avenue, New York City, July 12, 1871, and he has held the important offices in the Orange order, terminating in the highest office in the gift of the order, namely, the imperial grand master of the Zriem-Bini Council. The late Bro. Graham was well known to the Orangemen of Toronto, having resided in this city on numerous occasions, and there is general regret at his demise.

At Sandwich East—Mrs. Aglala Langlois, aged 92.

Joseph Collard, a member of the fire department since Jan. 13, 1876, died from apoplexy at Portland-street station early yesterday. He had been complaining of illness. For the last six years he had been caretaker of the station. On active duty, he served with Portland, Dundas and Upper sections. A son, also a fireman, was killed at a fire on McIntosh fire in 1903. Deceased was 71 years old. In the '60s he went to the western States and fought with the outbreak of the civil war fought with the Colorado Volunteer Cavalry. He belonged to Knowlton Post, G.A.R.

At Brantford—Dr. Berry, veterinary surgeon.

At Vicksburg, Miss.—Gen. Stephen D. Lee, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans.

At Toronto—John H. Fuller, an old resident, born at Prescott in 1820.

At Portage la Prairie—Robert Yearwood, a young man of 25 years of age, was present at the bedside and bid the deceased an affectionate farewell.

At Orangeville—R. W. Ritchie, for 45 years a resident, died yesterday after six months' illness, aged 65. For 27 years he was a traveler for the Eby Plain Co., Orangeville. He was 65 years of age when he was elected to the bench in 1898. He retired on full pay.

Chief Justice Fuller celebrated his 75th birthday last February, writes Raymond in The Chicago Tribune. He took the oath of office Oct. 4, 1888, so that he has been on the bench for 17 years. He will have rounded out an honorable service of 20 years as chief justice of the supreme court great, and by now for many a year upon the bench so far as appearances go, but after a score of years in such a place, concluding lives in the vicinity of Manhattan, it is natural to suppose that the white-haired chief justice is about ready to take a rest.

Chief Justice Fuller, and people who remember him in the old days in Chicago are aware that he was an ardent supporter of the gold standard. Cleveland during his first term, and it is well known he still retains a vast amount of admiration for the gold standard. It was natural, therefore, that Chief Justice Fuller should be closely identified with the gold Democratic wing of the party.

A HINT TO THE DOG CATCHER. It is a Staten Islander who sends this to The New York World, but maybe the hint which it contains is needed elsewhere than in the State of New York and the vicinity of Manhattan: If the dog-catcher spent more time in catching stray curs and less time in abducting pet dogs which the owners are so anxious to catch, and which would be fewer cases of hydrophobia in New York and less occasion for popular hysteria.

In cities especially the chief need is to get rid of this "stray cur," and the need becomes greater in the probability that certain recent events will revive the mad dog nervousness. In Connecticut, the law provides that a dog which is not kept under control for each unredeemed dog killed as it does for dogs redeemed but the dog whom somebody will redeem is easily and safely to catch, and which more in evidence than the stray dog.

In general, as it appears in Connecticut, it would be well if the dog warden were a little more alive to his duties under the law. In comparative few instances, so far as the evidence comes to hand, is this state's excellent statute for the regulation of dogs being enforced as thoroughly as it should be. It seems difficult to get dog wardens who will take seriously enough the duties of their office. It will be that all the dogs of Connecticut are this year properly licensed and regulated, and that there is nothing for the dog warden to do, but the gross resentment of the citizens and the state show do not wholly warrant that conclusion.

Congress and the President. San Francisco Chronicle (Ind.): One cannot help wondering whether after a President McKinley, of political tact, can not come nearer having his way than an exceedingly strenuous president. There is no doubt that congress resents the earnest and repeated messages of the president on topics in which he feels a deep interest. It is within the president's constitutional right to send them, and there is no question of his sincerity in believing them proper and necessary. By contrast, however, consider them as addresses not to them, but to the American people, and intended to coerce congress to be as expert as they are in their creation. And, whether rightly or wrongly, they are resented by the body which they are ostensibly intended to influence.

U. S. CHIEF JUSTICES.

Eight Men Have Enjoyed Honor Since Foundation of Government.

A chance to appoint the chief justice does not come often to a United States President. In point of fact, since the foundation of the government there have been less than the dozen chief justices, and since 1801 there have been but five altogether. The list of chief justices of the supreme court is as follows:

John Jay, New York, Sept. 23, 1789. John Rutledge, South Carolina, July 1, 1795. Oliver Ellsworth, Connecticut, March 4, 1796.

John Marshall, Virginia, Jan. 31, 1801. Roger B. Taney, Maryland, March 5, 1836. Salmon P. Chase, Ohio, Dec. 6, 1864. Morrison R. Waite, Ohio, Jan. 21, 1874.

Melville W. Fuller, Illinois, July 20, 1888.

From this list it will be seen that Chief Justice Fuller is exceeded in length of his term only by the famous John Marshall, who did so much to make our supreme court great, and by Roger B. Taney, the Maryland justice whose term of duty at the head of the court covered a stormy period of a quarter of a century just prior to the civil war. Under the law the judge of any United States court who has served the longest term of years and has been ten years on the bench is eligible to retirement on full pay.

Chief Justice Fuller celebrated his 75th birthday last February, writes Raymond in The Chicago Tribune. He took the oath of office Oct. 4, 1888, so that he has been on the bench for 17 years. He will have rounded out an honorable service of 20 years as chief justice of the supreme court great, and by now for many a year upon the bench so far as appearances go, but after a score of years in such a place, concluding lives in the vicinity of Manhattan, it is natural to suppose that the white-haired chief justice is about ready to take a rest.
