TUESDAY MORNING Parkdale Clean Up At the Expense Of the Tigers

The Parkdale A.C. cleaned up Steve Hewgill's Tigers last might in three straight games, and, as this was their final appearance in the finish of the first series of the T.B.C. League race, the Tiger management left nothing undone to bolster up the woak spots in a desperate effort to take at least one game from the fast-traveling Parkdales, but it was all of no avail. Frank Carpenter tried to carry the whole team in on his back in the first two games with counts in each over the 200 mark, but the load was too heavy, and the Tigers dropped two games that looked easy wins at the half-way mark. The features were Harry Williams' and Frank Carpenter's big totals, with 396 and 580, respectively, while the first named to high single, with 242, in his last game, and the "Pocket Hercules," who anchored for the Tigers, featured for the season by not litting a pin in two chances in the fifth frame of the last game, Score:
