The Art of Knitting

As well as making modest patriotic music, knitting needles construct almost indispensable "munitions." But they must be kept well fed, and for this purpose we have a full "menu" of wools in our Art Needlework Department. Three good kinds are given below. Have you tried "Elephant Brand Finerings"? It is a soft Scotch yarn in natural color; either 18c for 2-oz. skein, or, per lb. 1.44

"Ravencroft" needs no introduction; this particular one is in clerical grey double knitting and is a fine well-twisted wool. Per lb. 1.95

Then a four-ply fingering in grey khaki, heather mixture, blue, red and white, is a thoroughly reliable wool, and so soft for washing. Skeins, 12c. Per lb. 1.85
