MRS. WILLIAM HANSOM

DIES AT BIG FLATS, N. Y.

The death of Mrs, William Hansom, a former well-known and highly-esteemed resident of Markham Township, occurred at The Manse, Big Flats, N.Y., on Saturday, after an illness extending over a couple of months.

Mrs. Hansom, who was the eldest daughter of the late John and Sarah Smith of the 5th Con. of Markham, near Village of Unionville, is survived by her husband, Rev. William Hansom of Big Flats, N.Y., three sisters (Mrs. Alexander McGregor of Uxbridge, Mrs. Hugh Devlin, of Deer Park, and Mrs. Joseph Devlin, of Deer Park, and four brothers (Thomas of Toronto, and John, Henry and James, 5th Con., Markham). The late Mrs. Hansom was especially active in church and philanthropic work, and the news of her death will be learned with deep regret by a wide circle of friends.

The remains will be brought to the city and interment will take place at Mount Pleasant Campatary at two cyclock on the proposed an eloquent screen from the triumphant answer of the Prophet Isaiah to the historic question of Job and all the ages; "If a man die shall he live again?" This question, said the preacher, had risen to the lips of every son of Adam. It was written in the book of Job skrteen centuries before the birth of Christ and answered in the book of Job skrteen centuries before the birth of Christ and answered in the book of Job skrteen centuries before the birth of Christ and answered in the every son of Adam. It was written in the editrinative by Job. There was comfort for the relatives of the heroic fallen, and a note of triumph in the accupance of the text.

At the evening service an appropriate and cloquent service was attended by a party of soddiers in uniform. Patriotic hymns and friends.

The remains will be brought to the city and interment will take place at Mount Pleasant Cemetery at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, after a short service at the home of Mrs. G. A. Cartwright, 37 Davenport road.

Rev. Dr. Ribourg delivered at St. Alban's Cathedral, Sunday morning, a must be bridged. The church must, like Christ, go after the lost sheep and not with words of reproach and conof real and sincere kindness.

Dr. Ribourg said in part: "There are many Christians today, who like the Pharisee Simon, look with suspiof the fundamental function of the church, which is that of a clinic for sick souls. These people have come to look upon their church as a social centre, where none but themselves and few friends holding their views and living up to their standards, ought to have a place of honor. They forget that the Church of Christ is a school ly a place, where the sinner has even more right to be than the saint."
