THE ONLY STORE AVAILABLE

To hold this immense Stock is the Store formerly occupied by Henderson & Hunt, Main Street, which Store has now been procured to hold this great sale of Men's, Boys', Women's and Children's Wear.

555 MAIN STREET, St. John, N. B. F. S. Thomas Look For

This Mammoth Sale of New Clothing, Furnishings of all descriptions for Men, Women and Children, will be the sensation of the day, the wonder of the hour. A Sale that will appeal to all shrewd buyers. A Sale that will put many dollars in the poor man's poeket. The prices at which the goods will be sold will, without exception, cause the greatest price panic while this great Sale is in existence. This immense Stock is being sold by a Manufacturers' Syndicate. The Greatest Clothing Pioneers of Canada. There will be no Reserve whatever. All Goods must be sold and no waiting. This Immense Stock of Staple Ready-to-Wear Clothing for Men, Women and Children, has been consigned to the Manufacturers' Syndicate to sell regardless of cost. When they get hold of these stocks there is no memory of the first cost at all, so you know what that means. Keep this date open—Friday, August 13. Doors Open at 9 a.m.

TO BEGIN FRIDAY, AUGUST 13th.

Doors open at 9 a.m. This entire stock must be sold by August 28. A word to the wise. Be on hand early to avoid the rush. If you miss this opportunity of saving many hard-earned dollars, blame yourself, not us. We are doing our part, now it's up to you. Bring yourself, mother, father, son, daughter, and all the family. A'l Goods to be Marked in Plain Sale Prices. To make shopping easy, the management have instructed us to mark all Goods in Plain Sale Prices, which will be of great benefit to the purchaser. # THE MESSAGE warden and Evelyn apart during so long a period, the utterly hopeless project on which she had embarked in a moment of sealous rage might become feasible. Of earlier train than that caught by the course, the suggestion that he would marry Evelyn was preposterous, but there was no reason why she should hurt his She heard the fall of the envelope into the receptacle, and the appalling notion possessed her that the sound resembled the fall of earth on a coffin. She breathed heavily, and pressed a hand to her bosom. Figuero was watching her.

By LOUIS TRACY

"Now you done dem t'ing," he said, "you dash me some money."

"You won't play any more, then?"

"No sir. Me for the tall timbers with

CHAPTER IX.

"You won't play any more, then?"

She started. Did he mean to levy blackmail for his services?

"Why?" she asked, summoning all her strength of character to meet his gaze without flinching

"Me buy present for dem girl. If I make wife palaver dat cost many dollar."

"I am not buying your help. You trade with me one thing for the other. If you refuse, I write to the government about the men of Oku."

The Portuguese laughed more naturally

"You won't play any more, then?"

"No sir. Me for the tall timbers with the baron's wad. 'Lucky at cards, unlucky in love,' you know, and I've just heard that my best girl has made a date with the other fellow."

He walked away. erect, alert, and self-possessed. Warden strolled to a roulette board.

"I wonder if that is true?" he mused.

Instinctively his hand went to his pock-to, and losing or winning money with a bored air. He had just closed one bank successfully, and the table was set for another, when a young American, bright-
