ANDREW WILSON,
DAVID MCKAY,

The following deaths were reported:

JOHN AITKEN,	THOMAS McWILLIAM,	C. A. LOW.
ROBERT McLAREN,	THOMAS SELLAR,

Mr. Alexander McGibbon moved a vote of thanks to the Caledonian Society for the sum of $256 from Hallow'en entertainment, and also a number of photographs valued at $70; besides a sum of $100 previously given; and that the Hon. John Young and Mr. A. Robertson be appointed a deputation to convey the thanks of the Society to the Caledonian Society now in Session.

Mr. E. McLennan seconded the motion which was carried unanimously.

Mr. J. C. Becket moved, seconded by Mr. A. W. Ogilvie—"That a vote of thanks be given to Mrs. Colin Russell, for a basket of blooming heather sent for the evening Banquet, and to Messrs. James Fairie, A. Murray and J. A. Harte, for similar gifts."

Mr. E. McLennan reported the names of a number of new members. It was agreed that the names of all the new members should be given to the Secretary for enrolment, the recent change in the constitution having made the formalities of proposing and balloting unnecessary.

The new office-bearers were then installed, Mr. Andrew Robertson the new President taking the chair.

Mr. Ewan McLennan moved, seconded by Mr. A. W. Ogilvie, "That a vote of thanks be given to the retiring Pre-
