USE The Want Ad Way

THE SALE OF GERMAN SHIPS

Injunction Against Sale on Monday Following Hearst Campaign.

(Canadian Press Despatch.
Washington, Feb. 13.-A concurrent resolution directing the shipping board not to sell the thirty former German liners which the board plans to dispose of at public auction here Monday except through regular public bidding after three months' advertising and then only if proper offers are received, was introduced today by Senator Ashurst, of Arizona.
The resolution was offered in the midst of a debate on the sale of the ships.
Senator Ashurst declared that it was a fact that the shipping board intended to sell the vessels to the International Mercantile Marine for $28,000,000. He said the vessels had a pre-war value of $184, 000,000, and a present value of $300,000, 000.
Mr. Payne this afternoon announced that Hearst's application for an injunction would not prevent the offering of the ships for sale. He said tenders would be received Monday as planned, but that final action on them would be deferred until the injunction proceedings had been disposed of finally.

MYERS' HISTORY TO BE BANNED

Board of Education Prohibits Its Use in Public Schools.

The Board of Education has given instructions to the teachers of the high and superior schools that the latest edition of Myers' History of the World containing an objectionable chapter on the war, is not to be used in New Brunswick.
There is a provincial committee which edition of the book, containing the part taken by Canada in the late war, is so grossly unfair that those who realize how democratic is the content of the text books by the leaders of the educational profession, outside of the board of education, are compelled in justice to the department as well as to themselves to issue a statement showing just how the history was authorized and how it was possible for a few copies to get circulation without their knowledge or consent.
One of the leading Fredericton book sellers states that he has only sold three

NEXT IMPERIAL THEATRE
32 AND 36 KING SQUARE copies of the objectionable edition of Myers' History. This will give the public some idea of the very small foundation there is for the hullabaloo in connection with the circulation of the book.

There is a provincial committee which chooses the text books for the public schools of the province.
This committee is composed of W. S. Carter, Chief Superintendent of education; Chancellor Jones of the University of New Brunswick; Principal Bridges, of the Normal School; Dr. B. C. Foster, of the Frederick High School; H. H. Hagerman, instructor at the Normal School; Miss Ella Thorne, Fredericton; H. S. Bridges, Superintendent of the St. John public schools; Principal Myles, of St. John; Joseph Harrington, Miss Emma Caldwell, Principal Oulton, of Moncton; W. McI. Barker, Moncton; Inspector Hebert, Moncton.
This committee when it met in December last was not informed and had no knowledge of the objectionable chapter in the book. The committee of the text book of the World, and therefore the text book was recommended as usual and a committee composed of Dr. H. S.
Bridges, of St. John, and Superintendent of education, W. S. Carter, were appointed to go to Halifax and agree upon certain text books which could be used in common by the three provinces. This committee went to Halifax and met Dr.
McKay, Chief Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia; Professor Howard Murray, of Dalhousie University; Superintendent Butler, of the Halifax public schools; Inspector McDonald and D. McKilpatrick, as well as Colonel R. H.
Campbell, of Prince Edward Island.
The committee recommended Myers General History as a text book and did so without knowledge that a chapter had been added to the edition in use in 1918.
The above shows without any doubt that the educational authorities were not endeavoring to authorize an objectionable text book.
The department of education for New Brunswick has issued instructions to the teachers of High and Superior schools of the province that the latest edition of Myers' history is not to be used in the public schools. Three-quarters of the year has already been devoted to the study of this text book and it would be unfair to the pupils in examinations and unfair to the parents to ask them at this time to purchase another book at the high cost involved, $1.75 each. The edition to be used will not contain the objectionable chapter.
A member of the text book committee says that it is well to remember that all, or nearly all, of the histories used in the high schools of Canada are written by American authors. This is unfortunate, but it is true. When Myers Key, Chief Superintendent of Education, the text book committee had to meet not only the views of those interested in the history of the history but also had to satisfy the leaders of the different religious denominations that there was nothing objectionable in its pages.
The prompt action in the board of education of New Brunswick in refusing to authorize the latest issue of Myers history and advising other provinces of this action has been generally commended by all except those who can see nothing good in anything done by any department of the present government.
