USE THE WANT AD. WAY

She Bought a Piano on a Train. Being asked her reason for selecting a certain "make" of piano, a woman explained that while she did not get her piano till December, she really "bought" it on a train in July. In July, She bought it on a train—she selected it that day she read the advertisement which so forcibly impressed her. And yet some firms imagine they can afford to withdraw their advertising in the summer months! Pianos are not the only things people think about long before they have them sent home. Every important purchase is considered long before the article is ordered. And we are just as likely to be convinced by an advertisement we read in the Summer as at any time. You can obtain helpful advice on advertising free of cost and without obligation by consulting the Advertising Department of The Telegraph and Times.

FREE CUT SERVICE. With a view to greater co-operation with advertisers a free cut service is maintained in the Advertising Department of The Telegraph and Times. The illustrations from which the cuts are made are the work of the best commercial artists. The subjects covered include all lines of merchandise for retail or general advertising.
