

GRIUELLING SPRINTS BASIS FOR TRAINING CHICAGO SKATERS

GORMAN PLANS TO RETURN HERE AFTER NEWBURG

Skaters Are Getting Primed for Big World's Meet

SPRINTING over the 880-yard course forms most of the basis for the training preparation of Chicago group of skaters who will take part in the world championship meet here on January 26, 27 and 28, according to word received here yesterday. The man who will represent the Windy City against Gorman, Olympic champion, and other stars here, have not been selected yet, but this will be done shortly. Apparently, the Chicago outfit realize that stamina is going to be one of the main factors in settling the championship of the world here and instead of skating long distances at fast time, they have decided to force themselves into shape for the best possible up to and including the mile event. It looks as though they are almost ready to concede the two mile and five mile to Thunberg and base their chances on the shorter races.

But as has been pointed out, skating against a watch, and in competition, are two widely different performances. A skater of ordinary ability can go out and hang to a skater of exceptional ability, and while not able to pass him can keep fairly close to him. Thunberg is at a disadvantage in skating against the North American boys in that he is unused in the tricks and ways around the blocks, although doubtless he has been fully informed as to the meaning in the skating vocabulary of the word "pocket." The Chicago contingent, which doubtless will be headed by Harry Kaskey, O'Neill Farrell, Roy McWhirter and Steinmetz, and some other young sensation (they usually produce one every year) are out to set a dizzy pace from the start, and from this distance it would not be at all surprising to see some records go to the boards.

TO RETURN AFTER MEET
Charlie Gorman will return to Saint John right after the Newburg meet on New Year's Day, he said last night prior to his departure. He expects to be back next Monday, and on the following Monday will leave for New York to take part in the Madison Square Garden race over the three-mile course against Thunberg, Jewtraw and Moore. On Thursday night of same week he will compete in the mile against these skaters. He will probably then return to Saint John and put in ten days in getting into shape for the big events here. Following the world's meet here, the skaters move on to Birmingham and from there to meet in Detroit, New York and Pittsburgh. The campaign from year to year is a strenuous one with the skaters appearing right up to the beginning of March.

GORMAN TO NEWBURG
Charlie Gorman, Canadian ace of the tubular blades, left last evening for Newburg, where he will make his first bid for honors for the 1926 skating season on New Year's Day. Gorman was in good condition, except for a cold, and was confident that he would make a good showing at the meet, which is for the Middle Atlantic States title.

Gorman was not decided last night as to whether he would remain in the United States until after the Madison Square Garden races or return here until just before the meet.

TO BACK SMYTHE
MONCTON, Dec. 29.—At a meeting of the committee of the whole Junior Council, tonight, it was definitely decided to support Harry Smythe, local speed skater, who will attend the Canadian and International skating meets this winter. The sum of $800 to cover Smythe's expenses was voted by the Junior Council and will be raised by popular subscription. The Junior Mayor Karl Steves will give Smythe a letter of recommendation to the public to solicit subscriptions and aid. Mr. Steves was appointed treasurer of the fund.

The Junior mayor and Junior aldermen opened the list tonight with donations for this purpose.

COMING TO AMERICA.
BERLIN, Dec. 28.—Dr. Emanuel Lasker, former world's chess champion and winner of second prize in the recent international tournament at Moscow, has returned to his home here. He announced today his intention to visit the United States next month for an extended tour. Dr. Lasker has engaged passage on board the steamship Cleveland of the United States Lines, due to arrive in New York on Jan. 18.

Sussex Planning Hot Reception For Saint John Hockey Team

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

THIS is the time when throughout the land the sport writers in their frantic efforts to fill up what's left over after the advertising experts are finished with their page turn to reviews of the season's sport activities. But there is no worse news than old news although in a way you could hardly term this news at all. It's a sort of brushing up with an eye to the future. The biggest thing in Saint John's athletic year of 1926 is the world's championship skating meet and a review in brief of the 1925 skating season might not be out of order. This season was remarkable only for the fact that it produced one Francis Allen, of Chicago, as the amateur skater supreme of this part of the world, Mr. Allen carrying off both the national and international titles. He won the international title in February by piling up 100 points at a meet at Saranac Lake while Valentine Blais finished second with Joe Moore third. A week later, Allen took the national title at Lake Placid with 120 points with Charlie Gorman and Blais tied for second place. Joe Moore, New York, successfully defended his indoor title while Miss Lella Brooks, of Toronto, carried off honors in the women's division. They say this Miss Brooks is a coming world's champion. No remarkable marks were made in 1925 when practically every record of note was shattered. That's a rather unusual fact but it is borne out by the records and it shows that the skaters in that year were at top form all the way through. Class Thunberg gives every promise of shattering a few at the world's meet here and if Messrs. Jewtraw, Gorman, Kaskey and others are in shape, we can look for several lower marks in the shorter distances. 1926 was not a particularly good year for skating but 1926 shapes up with great promise.

MR. CLAS THUNBERG has shown amazing time against the watch in his workouts. If he can show the same time against a pack of the best skaters in America, the laurel wreath is his. But there is quite a difference between the watch and the pack. Watch the pack.

A RATHER interesting international boxing event is carded for the headliner of the Madison Square Garden show on New Year's Night at New York when Roland Todd, England, meets Dave Shade, California welterweight, who nearly grabbed off Mickey Walker's crown recently. Todd is a good boxer and should show better but he made a bad start in his debut when his manager, who was beautiful but dumb, sent him against Tommy Loughran, a Philadelphia youngster who should have been champion long ago but for "a mentality of a choir boy" as one New York writer phrased it. The sport writers were inclined to think that Todd won that fight but the judges said otherwise. That defeat seemed to crush Todd and he never showed much and soon went back home. In Shade he is facing a rugged opponent but has a good chance of winning. Sgt. Sammy Baker will meet a young man by the name of Freeman, the semi-final. Mr. Baker has been going great guns lately and we hope this Freeman has made his will and given his jackknife to the kid next door.

SAINT JOHN'S hockey outfit makes its debut in the Sussex Arena tonight. The team has shown much promise in workouts but it can safely count on plenty of opposition tonight.

THE LIST of ice champions for the year 1925 recently was published by the New York Times and shows that Canada managed to capture three. These were: International outdoor junior champion, Willie Logan, of this city; international women's indoor, Miss Lella Brooks, Toronto; and North America doubles figure skating, Melville Rogers and Miss Gladys Rogers, Toronto. Rogers has appeared at the Arena here. Here is the complete list for 1925:

LOCAL OUTFIT KEEN TO WIN IN FIRST START

Fredericton and Campbellton Win in Northern Section

SUSSEX is planning a hot reception for Saint John's hockey team this evening in the Dairy Town, and despite the trimming they received at Moncton at the hands of the Atlantics on Monday night feel confident they can take the measure of the local boys on their home ice. The showing made by the youngsters on the team in the railway centre has greatly encouraged Manager Radcliffe and he looks for even better work on their part tonight. Saint John is taking along a strong line-up, although a somewhat untied one as yet. They will receive their baptism of fire tonight, and if they can come out of this engagement with a win they will have made a long stride toward keeping in the race for the New Brunswick title. On New Year's night here the locals will meet Moncton.

NORTHERN SECTION.
The northern section games last evening were thrillers, with Fredericton beating Chatham at Chatham, 5 to 3, while Campbellton handed the strong Bathurst outfit the biggest surprise of the season by beating the pulp men in their own rink, 2 to 0. The Fredericton boys took the lead at the start. The victory in front of the Fredericton net, in the first period, sagging the Chatham net four times. The locals did not find their feet until the second period, when they made in front of the Fredericton initial tally. Kouchan, taking a pass from J. Keoughan, tallied No. 2.

HECTIC HOCKEY.
The last period saw 20 minutes of hectic hockey. The local warriors, perched to tie up the score. Fallon, making an end to end rush, beat out Hickson for Chatham's third tally. Fallon made in front of the Fredericton net, Duncan poked the puck past Hickson. The goal judge's decision was overruled by the referee and the goal was counted.

FORWARDS SUPERB.
Throughout the game the superiority of the Fredericton forward line competition play was quite apparent. The locals confined themselves largely to individual rushes. Both sides used their substitute players freely. Both suffered from frequent penalties.

The line-up was as follows:

Fredericton	Goal	Fredericton
Carvell	Defence	Hickson
Duncan	Defence	Steen
Keoughan	Defence	J. Sterling
Fallon	Left Wing	Keenan
McMahon	Left Wing	Keene
	Spares
J. Keoughan	A. Sterling
Keoughan	Keene
McMahon	Keene
Referee, Les Lowther, Amherst; timers, K. Carvell, S. Scott; penalty timers, E. W. Watling, F. Duffy; goal judges, P. H. Barry, G. McKinnis.

Summary:
First period—Keene, 3:00; Keenan, 14:00; J. Sterling, 16:00; A. Sterling, 18:00.
Second period—Kerr, 10:00; Duncan, 14:00.
Third period—Fallon, 9:00.

AT BATHURST.
BATHURST, Dec. 29.—The opening game of the northern section of the Maritime Hockey Association took place at the Bathurst arena last evening between Bathurst and Campbellton before about 1,100 enthusiastic hockey fans, Campbellton winning with a score of 2 to 0.

The line-up:

Bathurst—Goal, Finnegan; defence, Crosby, R. Cripps; centre, Lynch; forward, J. Cripps; spares, McKinnis, Fallon, Gammon.
Campbellton—Goal, LeBlanc; defence, McLean, Sharpe, centre, Howard; wings, Wilkins, Thomas; spares, Miller, Laviolette, Shannon.

Both teams played good hockey in the first period. Campbellton displayed good combination. Two penalties were handed out in this period, which ended with no score.

BRITISH NOBLEMAN TO LEAVE TURF

Hon. George Hampton Has Won All of Blue Ribbons of Track

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Almost the last of the noblemen race horse trainers, the Hon. George Hampton, is retiring from his profession with all of the blue ribbons of the English turf in his possession.

The Honorable George has trained the horses of the Earl of Derby since 1893, and it has been mostly with the animals of this sporting lord, that he has won the coveted classics—the Derby, the Oaks, the St. Leger and the Eclipse stakes, the last race many times over. The trainer and his noble employer crowned their racing careers in 1924, by winning the Derby with a colt, the Nether Dec.

George Hampton has the fifth son of the late Earl of Durham. He began his profession in Queen Victoria's days. Most members of the peerage then were lovers of horse flesh, and many trained their racers for the sport of it. Lambton has seen most of the aristocratic trainers pass on, and ex-jockeys and ex-bookmakers take their places. With more success, but hardly with as much glory.

REVEALS NEW GUN TO FIGHT AIRCRAFT

Gen. Hines Tells of Weapon With 15,000 Feet Vertical Range

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Major-General John L. Hines, Chief of Staff of the army, in his annual report, disclosed the development of an "entirely new" anti-aircraft automatic gun of 87 millimeters, with a promised velocity of 3,000 feet per second, a possible vertical range of 15,000 feet and with visible tracer range of 10,000 feet, which, the report said, "should assist materially in solving the problem of defence against aircraft."

The adoption of a selective service system, which would be placed in operation immediately upon the outbreak of any future major war, coupled with equally important improvements in other weapons of warfare, are stressed by Major-General Hines in his report to Secretary of War Davis.

"It is a matter of common knowledge," General Hines states, "that unlimited numbers of the type of aircraft of 1914 would be hopelessly outclassed by a mere handful of the latest types. It has not been fully appreciated that improvements in other lines have been, if less spectacular, equally important. Considering the limited funds available the progress made during recent years in the development of new and improved types of weapons of warfare has been remarkable."

LUMBERJACKS OF FORTY TODAY OF NEW TYPE

Rolling and Hard-Swearing Woodsmen no More in Ont. Camps, Says Official

PORT WILLIAM, Dec. 29.—Canada's lumberjack, the bearded, hard-drinking, swearing, picturesque figure around whom romance and fiction have ever entwined, is no more. His time is past, never to return, says W. C. Millar, on returning here after a visit to the lumber camps in the district. Mr. Millar is provincial sanitary inspector for Ontario.

Although there are about 8,000 men employed in lumbering operations in Northern Ontario, Mr. Millar declares he found nowhere the lumberjack as painted in novels. In his long tour of inspection, he found that the camps were filled with ambitious young men, saving money for college education, and hard-working foreigners laying aside a "nest egg." They wash three times a day, shave and bathe regularly. Three times a day they enjoy meals as good as served in many hotels, Mr. Millar said.

Every man has an individual bed. Baths and shower huts are provided. Hot and cold water is always on tap. Beans and bacon, the inspector asserted, had given way to steak and onions. The men were very polite and many showed a spare time to reading and music. There was a total absence of the rollicking and boisterous characteristic of former days.

A LOOK AHEAD

It is stated that more than $2,000,000 will be paid to men in wages and food in the various camps this winter. Another $300,000 is being spent on medical supplies. Next year, when the expected pulped development starts, it is declared that 30,000 men will be employed in the Northern Ontario woods.

In a year's time the white pine now being cut in the Quebec forests will be used in the finishing of homes in Chicago, Detroit and other large cities of the United States; jackpine cut all through the district west of White River will be used in the manufacture of railway coaches, that bring in immigrants, and bus cars to move next year's wheat crop; pulpwood from the Michigan straits will be on the bookshelves of the reading public, while popular from the Poe Dec district will be used in making packing cases for the products of the large packing cities on the continent.

TORONTO EASY PICKINGS FOR YANKS TONIGHT

League Leadership Is Again In The Balance

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—An easy win for New York is expected here tonight in their game against the disorganized Toronto St. Pats, who are minus the services of their sharpshooter, "Babe" Dye. Boston beat St. Pats last night and the Americans are as fresh as daisies for tonight's test against the tired-out Canadians.

Toronto has a very difficult assignment, all else being equal, in tonight's game here. The schedule has forced them to play games on consecutive nights. The St. Pats stopped off in Boston last night for a game with the Bruins. It is just such a break as confronted New York before it met the Montreal Maroons here. The night before the Maroons appeared in the Garden New York played the Pirates in Pittsburgh. They were fortunate further to experience a serious train wreck on the way home which cost them whatever chance they might otherwise have had to beat the burly Montreal puck chasers.

New York will spend New Year's Eve and New Year's Day in town, but Friday evening will entail for Montreal a visit to the big Forum rink. This is second only in capacity to the 10,000 seats. It should be a battle for blood, as the Gormantes are bent on getting back at a team that showed them no mercy while they were still smarting from the bruises occasioned by the Bruins' victory. He got the last goal of the game, on a lone rush in which he went right through the St. Pats' tackle. He also visited the penalty box twice.

The Bruins were on the top of their form. For the first time they produced a clean scoring combination the key to which was little Carson Cooper, Hugo Harrington, recruit wing man, who made good at the first asking, and Sallor Herberts, centre, drove into the defence and fed back to Cooper.

In going down to defeat before the Bruins for the second time this year, the Irish presented a disorganized team, showing clearly the team missed Babe Dye, their star marksman. Whatever opportunities they had were lost by fumbling and carelessness. The game they looked like a badly beaten outfit. Harrington, Cooper and Clegmore were the scorers.

Large Scale Tailoring

The Triple C Tailors have as many customers as a whole group of average size tailoring concerns. They are able to buy in big quantities, placing orders for cloth large enough to obtain direct importations.

In other words they pay less money for good cloth. Importing direct to Saint John port to save in transportation, paying no railway freight.

Located inexpensively and operating a sizeable staff they can devise a system of production that cuts down expenses and builds up efficiency.

The result is quality clothes made to measure for far less.
