THE cost of living is an important thing in most homes. You may have to figure closely in these matters. A little extra on a barrel of flour may look big to you. But there is a difference between spending money wisely and spending it foolishly. Sometimes it is economy to spend instead of to save. It is in the case of Royal Household Flour. Those few extra cents a week, that give you in preference to inferior flour, buy health. Nothing contributes so much to the food you eat as flour, and therefore nothing should be more carefully bought. Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour is the whitest, cleanest and most nutritious flour that's milled. It is the only flour that is absolutely pure. Ask your grocer.

Royal Household Flour

VERDICT FOR $100

IN JURY CASE OF LITTLE VS. PULLIN HEARD AT DIVISION COURT.

From Thursday's Daily.

The jury case in which Henry Little of Dereham sued his brother-in-law, Robert Pullin, for $100, which it was claimed was loaned to him by sister, who was the wife of the plaintiff, was the most important one heard at the sitting of the Division Court yesterday. The defendant contended that the money which he had received from his sister, was the proceeds of a colt, which she had owned in her lifetime. The plaintiff, however, contended that the colt in reality had belonged to him and that his wife had loaned his (plaintiff's) money to Pullin.

Considerable evidence was given on both sides, at the close of which the judge submitted certain questions to the jury, but they answered by giving a verdict for the plaintiff for $100 and costs.

J. C. Hegler, K.C. for the plaintiff, and Mr. McDonald, London, for the defendant.

Lesson IV.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 25, 1908.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Ps. xxxi—Memory Verses, 1, 2—Golden Text, Ps. xxxii, 1—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

(Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.) We turn today to this psalm for a lesson on the joy of forgiveness, and the fact that there is so little joy on the part of those who profess to be forgiven may indicate that there has never been a realization of what sin is or possibly no assurance of forgiveness, for when such a word as (Isa. xliii, 25) "I, even I, am He that blot out thy transgressions for mine own sake and will not remember thy sins" fails to produce great gratitude and gladness it indicates a sad indifference to one's guilt or to the great cost of the redemption which takes it away. Our lesson begins with "Oh, the happiness of him whose transgression and sin and iniquity has been put away." In Ex. xxxi, 4, 7, the Lord proclaims Himself as the one who forgives iniquity, transgression and sin, and in Lev. xvii, 11; Heb. ix, 22. It is very clearly taught that this forgiveness can only be by the shedding of blood, and that or whose blood is stated in Eph. i, 7, and many parallel passages—"In whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace." In verse 5 of our psalm we see that in order to obtain forgiveness there must be an acknowledgment, an uncovering, a confession of sin, iniquity and transgression, for he that covereth his sins shall not prosper, but he that confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy (Prov. xxviii, 13, or as in Ps. xxxviii, 18, "I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin."

God is ever ready to forgive if only the sinner will confess his guilt. He says, "Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God (Jer. iii, 13). Again, it is written, "If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John i, 9). The result of attempting to cover our sins from God's eyes in verses 3 and 4 of our lesson. That men should be so deluded as to think it possible to hide anything from Him to whom all things are naked and open and to whom darkness and light are all alike seem hardly conceivable, but as soon as Adam and Eve sinned we see them attempting to hide from God (Gen. iii, 8), so blind and so foolish does sin make people. In one place the psalmist says, "So foolish was I and ignorant was I as a beast before thee" (Ps. lxxiii, 22).

In verses 6, 7, the safety of the forgiven is spoken of as a hiding in God and this preserved from trouble and compassed about with songs of deliverance, reminding us of the gracious words of Isa. xliii, 1, 2, "Fear not, for I have redeemed thee; I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine."

And then the assurance that neither flood nor fire can really burn those who are truly His. "Our life is hid with Christ in God," "preserved in Jesus Christ" (Col. iii, 3; Jude, ii). We know that these things are written in the book, but how few comparatively seem to so appropriate them as to raise them to be filled with joy and peace! There seems to be a great failure to possess our possessions (Quid, 17), a slowness to believe that God means what He says and that He means you or me or any one who humbly and persistently comes to Him.

As should be like the man who is hid with Christ in God, "preserved in Jesus Christ" (Col. iii, 3; Jude, ii). We know that these things are written in the book, but how few comparatively seem to so appropriate them as to raise them to be filled with joy and peace! There seems to be a great failure to possess our possessions (Quid, 17), a slowness to believe that God means what He says and that He means you or me or any one who humbly and persistently comes to Him.

REVIVAL IN TORONTO.

Chapman and Alexander Hold Big Opening Gathering.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—A repetition of the great meetings held during the Torrey-Alexander visitation was shown to be possible last night in Massey Hall, when Dr. Wilbur J. Chapman and Charles M. Alexander appeared on their way to the States after a revival season spent at Orillia. Dr. Chapman proved to be a splendid speaker, full of fire and enthusiasm.

The music by Mr. Alexander, Mr. Butler and Robert Harkness was thrilling as of old and a verse of the REV. DR. WILBUR J. CHAPMAN. "Glory Song" had all its old time inspiration.

Dr. Chapman's company follow the maxim, "They never denounce. They just love." It was a great deal cheaper to convert a man than to try to reform him. Dr. Chapman quoted from Ralph Connor. He did not condemn the sociological workers or the apostles of environment, but the best they could do was only to add a little temper to the axe.

WANTS HER DAUGHTERS.

Hamilton Roman Catholics Are Consoled by Mother's Return.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Elizabeth Longaker of New York City, is making an endeavor through the courts at Osgoode Hall to recover possession of her two daughters, Elizabeth York, 14 years, and Annie Reilly, aged 11, whom she alleges are being unlawfully held by the sisters of St. Joseph in Hamilton.

Her first husband, Geo. York, died in Hamilton in 1893. Plaintiff went to live in New York in 1900, leaving the girls with the sisters of St. Mary's Orphanage. After marrying Albert Longaker she asked, in December, 1906, that her daughters be restored to her.

Mrs. Longaker claims she could get no satisfaction from the mother superior of the Sisters of St. Joseph in July, 1907, and appealed to Rev. Father Mahoney, who advised her to get a letter from a priest in New York. She did this and sent it with $100 to Father Mahoney, who refused, she says, either to accept the money or to disclose the whereabouts of her children.

WARRANT FOR YARDMAN.

Brantford, Oct. 15.—A warrant has been issued here for the arrest of William Maguire, a local railway yardman, said to have been responsible for the violation of rules which resulted in the disastrous wreck on the Grand Trunk Railway near Mt. Vernon.

Maguire, whose home is at Princeton, has not yet been located by the authorities.

The wreck was caused by a freight train leaving the city before the return of the pilot engine on the Mt. Vernon grade.

THE GOVERNMENT AND ZAM-BUK

STRIVE OUT FROM FORT WILLIAM TAKES THIS WONDERFUL BALM

Zam-Buk, the favorite household balm, is now adopted as "The Doctor" by leading parties in surveying various parts of the Dominion lands.

Mr. Henry Hall, writing from Fort William, says: "Having proved how beneficial Zam-Buk is in cases of cuts, skin injuries and diseases, I determined to keep a supply handy. Being engaged to go on a survey, I thought it would be a most useful thing to take along. I obtained a supply in Fort William, and very well it was I did so. I may say that pretty nearly every day it was called into requisition by one or other of the party for cuts, bruises, burns, or sunburn or other. It is a wonderful balm quickly Zam-Buk takes the soreness out of cuts, burns, bruises, and injuries, and on our survey it earned golden opinions from all who had occasion to try it. I have found it very fine for skin diseases, and I can strongly recommend it as a household balm."

Mr. Lasek's Scott, one of the leading government analysts, says: "I have no hesitation in certifying the entire purity of Zam-Buk, which in my opinion is excellently adapted for skin injuries and diseases."

Zam-Buk cures cuts, scalds, burns, bruises, eczema, scalp sores, ringworm, ulcers, abscesses, chapped places, cold sores, blood poisoning, chronic abscesses, etc. As an embrocation it relieves rheumatism, neuralgia, and sciatica. All druggists and stores sell at 50 cents a box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 3 boxes for $1.25. Send 1 cent stamp for dainty sample box.

SUFFRAGETTES RIOT

Unemployed Help Women in Demonstration in London.

100,000 JOIN IN THE FIGHT

Huge London Crowd Assists Vote-Seeking Women to Storm British House of Commons and Force of 5,000 Soldiers and Police Is Required to Repel Besiegers—One Woman Gains the Floor.

London, Oct. 14.—The unemployed of London, acting together with the women suffragists, are practically compelling Parliament to hold its meetings in a state of siege. Early yesterday afternoon several hundred shabbily-dressed representatives of the workless gathered at Westminster and brought with them a large crowd of the curious. Squads of police, mounted and on foot, endeavored to disperse the demonstrators, but they were only driven down one street to reappear upon another.

The climax of the suffragette campaign was reached last night when an enormous mob hemmed in Parliament and stopped the traffic in all streets leading to Westminster. More than three hours the crowds scuffled good-naturedly with the police, interfered with theatre-goers, broke windows and disorganized things generally in the centre of London.

The heroine of the day was Mrs. Travers Symons, formerly secretary to James Keir Hardie, the Socialist and Independent member of Parliament, who reached the door of the House of Commons by strategy. The House was solemnly debating a bill to prevent children from cigarette smoking, when the woman dashed past the doorkeeper to a position in front of the Speaker's chair and shouted shrilly: "Leave off discussing children and talk about the women."

Three officials seized Mrs. Symons and carried her out bodily. She was led to the outer door and dismissed. As a result of the coup an order was issued that hereafter women should not be admitted to the building on any pretext whatever, and in the future the historic grille will not screen feminine spectators. The appeal issued by the suffragettes a few days ago for 50,000 persons to help them "rush" Parliament at 7:30 o'clock last evening was the most successful stroke yet. Not less than twice that number responded to the call, and nine-tenths of these were young people, who came to see the fun. There were also a few hundred of the unemployed and their sympathizers.

Parliament was in a state of siege. A close triple line of police was drawn around the three sides of the square in front of the building. The yard between the gates swarmed with police, and the rear against assault by water, which the women twice attempted.

A small force of police boats also patrolled the Thames approaches. All the mounted police in London and suburbs had been mobilized at this centre and loads of hay were unstacked in the streets for the horses. The whole police force, together with cavalry, infantry and marines, numbering more than 5,000, was kept busy in restraining the pushing, struggling masses, and especially about Trafalgar square, where the Nelson monument looked down upon dense crowds in all directions, with buses, motor cars and cabs, mostly filled with sightseers, trying to thread their way through.

The police kept the streets adjoining the House of Commons clear, elsewhere they endeavored to the best of their ability to keep the people moving. The crowd cheered, sang songs and hoisted giving voice to all the sarcastic remarks that a London crowd is capable of. These were aimed in a semi-good-natured manner at the suffragettes, who distinguished by their sashes, swarmed everywhere, distributing tracts.

A delegation of thirteen suffragettes which approached the police cordon and was formally refused admission to the building, attempted a foot ball rush, but the police repulsed the women with the least possible roughness, however, which approached the line were driven off, with little saving grace, one across Westminster bridge and the other to St. James Park.

The police were pelted with vegetables and some with stones in a few minor skirmishes that occurred, but nobody was seriously hurt. Twenty-four suffragettes and 12 of the unemployed were placed under arrest. Many persons fainted in the crush; a few were trampled upon and taken to the hospitals.

Mrs. Pankhurst, Miss Christabel Pankhurst and Mrs. Lawrence were summoned to court Monday for inciting a breach of the peace. Yesterday morning they coolly refused to obey the summons, but agreed to surrender themselves at Police Court in the evening, which they did, spending the night in the Bow street station.

The suffragettes and unemployed have kept practically the whole police force on duty continuously for forty-three hours.

A Grain Blockade. Moosejaw, Oct. 14.—There is a serious crop shortage in Moosejaw at the present time. Every elevator in town is full and farmers without loads of wheat are being turned away. Only three cars a day are being furnished by the C.P.R. Reports from country points tell a similar story. Farmers have large quantities of wheat still in fields, and the supply of cars is extremely limited.

Typhoid at Regina Barracks. Regina, Sask., Oct. 14.—An epidemic typhoid fever has broken out at the police barracks here, and thirteen cases are now being treated in the Military Hospital. Only two nurses are available for all these patients.
