

CLEANINGS OF CITY AND PROVINCIAL NEWS IN A CONDENSED FORM.

—“On Wednesday evening the marriage of Mr. T. Yelding, chief engineer of the Union Steamship Company's steamer Coulli, to Miss H. W. Bryant, second daughter of Mr. James Bryant, of Nineteenth avenue, Mount Pleasant, took place,” says the Vancouver News-Advertiser. “The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Conley at the residence of the bride's parents. Capt. Judge, of the steamer Vulcan, was best man, while Mrs. Forsyth attended the bride, Miss C. Bryant and Miss G. W. Forsyth officiating as flower girls. Mr. and Mrs. Yelding left on the Charnier Thursday

—Sunday being children's day at the First Presbyterian church, a very large assembly of Sunday school pupils and their friends gathered in the auditorium of the church, where the General Assembly's Sunday school service was carried out. The superintendent presided, and with him on the platform were Dr. Campbell and Rev. Mr. Shanks, the American evangelist. Mr. Shanks gave the address on "Living Epistles," which was bright, racy, instructive and much enjoyed by the children and their friends. This school is supporting a pupil at Pointe au Tremble, Quebec.

—Three young boys, aged respectively 17, 14 and 14, have been arrested by the provincial police charged with criminal assault. The case will come up for hearing to-day. The offence is alleged to have taken place last Thursday night. The provincial police investigated the circumstances fully, and as a result of their investigations the arrests were made by Sergt. Murray and Officer Campbell.

land, Canada and the United States. In fact it seemed that every section of this civilized world was represented among those gathered around the festive board. Companions J. Sykes and J. W. Prescott, of Vancouver, were very entertaining in their remarks, and extended the highest praise to officers and members of the local chapter. "The Newly Installed Officers" was proposed by M. E. Comp. R. E. Britt who paid a very high com-

CHILLIWACK.

The 32nd annual exhibition was opened here on Wednesday, the president, J. G. Henderson presiding, C. W. Munro, M. P. P., formally opened the exhibition. He spoke of the great resources and possibilities of the valley and the incentive gained from past exhibitions, and congratulated the officers of the association for the great success that had crowned their efforts in making this year's show the most successful they had yet held. The merchants of the town all joined to-

OILC
J. PIERO
Wholesale Dry Goods

BARC
Tread Upon the Heels of Pears' Unperfected Transparent Soap, and Claret's Buxton Unperfected Transparent

LOTH
Y & CO.,
Is. Victoria, B. C.

GAINS
Bargains at These Stores

Each	10c.
Shoe 3 pairs for	75c.

2 o'clock of the singing was in front of the building where the show was taken. When awarding prizes was completed, under the leadership of the north, rendered a number of musical selections.

Many took advantage of it to wander through the forest to the different stands. In general, were most credit more observing it was even different classes of trees presented, although the many cases above the state explained by the drought of recent months, which led to the crops of the high mountain valley. All root trees, numerous, and some very big, were seen.

After running the length of an exhibit of home pressed jams, which, perhaps, attracted as much attention as any other part in a most appreciating elicited many favored ex-

On Wednesday last at the church, Lake district, a pretty wedding was celebrated, the contracting parties being Mr. Christopher John Loat, of Victoria, and Miss Ada Helen Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Daniels, of Sunnyside Farm, Lake district. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. R. Connell in the presence of a large number of relatives and intimate acquaintances. Mr. Alfred Daniels supported the groom, and Miss May Daniels acted as bridesmaid. The bride was given away by her father. A reception was afterwards held at the residence of the bride's parents, when a large number of many handsome presents, showing the high esteem in which they are held, left the same evening by the Princess Victoria for Seattle, where they intend spending a brief honeymoon.

THE GOVERNOR'S WIFE A PRISONER.—Mrs. J. A. Van Laven is the wife of the governor of the county jail, Nanaimo, Ont., and was a great sufferer from rheumatism. When the best doctors in the community and "specialists" failed to help her, she buried her scepticism of proprietary remedies and purchased South American Rheumatic Cure. 4 bottles cured her.—42

Chas. A. Gilbert and Miss Maggie Mendell, of Sudbury.

COLDWELL EDWARDS—At Vancouver,
Sept. 21st, by Rev. Geo. A. Wilson,
W. C. Coldwell and Miss Violet Edwards.

ANDERSON-COX—At the residence of the bride's parents, 165 Fort street, on the 23rd inst., by the Rev. G. K. B. Adams, of the Metropolitan church, Ernest Melville, second surviving son of J. A. Anderson. B. A., to Sophia Kathleen, only daughter of D. G. Cox.

DIED.

ROBERTS—At Vancouver, on Sept. 24th,
Miss James F. Roberts, aged 61 years.

WILLIS—At New Westminster, on Sept.
24th, William James Willis, aged 27 years.

improve the efficiency of the corps. Incidentally he remarked that with the showing in this and past years he was satisfied the company would improve greatly once it was in possession of its new drill hall.

VANCOUVER.

Provincial Officer Woolacott arrived on Thursday on the steamer Cassiar in charge of an Alert Bay Indian named Johnny Kamuze, who was sentenced by Indian Agent G. W. DeBeck to pay a fine of $300, or serve six months in jail, for supplying whiskey to another In-News was brought from the north by the Amur this morning that eastern capital was likely to be invested in the Bul lion Creek properties. The proposition is reported to have been made by W. L. Breeze, an eastern capitalist, who seeks to secure leases of claims on the creek. He seeks leases from No. 1 above discovery to No. 84 below.

The proposition submitted by Mr. Breeze is that he take over the claims and operate by a gigantic hydraulic process, preparatory work to begin on October 1st of the present year, the work

In 1897 the New York state council ordered householders to hang out lanterns on the first street lighting in America.

30
20 per