General Business.

MT. ALLISON LADIES' ACADEMY, Sackville, N. B. REV. D. KENNEDY, D. D., Principal

ONE of the BEST EQUIPPED SEMINARIES in the Deminion tembracing Courses of Study from the primary to the degree of B. A.
Departments of Music and First Arrs under direction of Sezuaisrs. For particulars send for catalogue. First Term opens 21st August. 7.R.25

NOTICE

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the following Notice and Petition signed by over one fourth of Electors qualified and competent to vote at the Election of a Member for the House of Commons in the County of Northumberland, praying that the Second Part of the Canada Temperance Act of 1878 should be in force and take effect in the County of Northumberland, and that the vote of all the Electors of the said County may be taken for and of the said County may be taken for and sgainst the adoption of the said Petition, will be deposited in the office of JohnShir-reff, Esquire, Sheriff of the County of Northumberland, on Thursday 31st day of July, inst., for public examination by any parties for ten days preceding its being laid before the Secretary of State as required by law.

Liverpool Continent Dublin

Other Ports

Bristol Chan

Besides the dea

exported as follows in Augus

4,050,601 1,046.952 1,370,307

1,461,861

7,929,721

1879.

MIRAMICHI.

1879.

9,892,473

1878.

1878.

1878.

PETITION.

the Honorable the Secretary of State for Canada.

Sir,—We the undersigned Electors of the County of Northumberland request you to take notice that we propose presenting the following petition to His Excellency the Governor General, namely:

To Hie Excellency the Governor General of Canada in Council.

The patition of the Electors of the

The petition of the Electors of the County of Northumberland qualified and competent to vote at the election of a member of the House of Commons in said County.

Respectfully showeth, that your petition anid petition. Chatham, July 11th, 1878.

IMPORTANT SALE -OF-Real Estate.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the following valuable properties, consisting of farms, building ots, etc.

That desirable business stand on the North side

f Water street, Chatham, opposite the store of R.

Sain, Eqo., with the two store; building thereon.

Also, a Lot of Land containing about Five Acres

situate in Chatham, on the East side of the Chapel

Road, and lying between fields owned by G. C. Also, a Lot or attack on the base of the latest of the lat Pass the residence of Dr. Pallen, bounded on the East by Queen street, on the West by King street, and in front or South, by Howard street.

Also all that Land situate in Chatham, lying between St. John and Cunard streets, and fronting on Church street, with buildings thereon.

Also, that Lot of Land in Chatham on the North side of Upper Water street known as the Coulson property, with the buildings thereon and wharf attached.

The Market of Street Street known as the Coulson property, with the buildings thereon and wharf attached.

The Market of Street Street known as the Coulson property, with the buildings thereon and wharf attached.

The Market of Street Street known as the Coulson property, with the buildings thereon and wharf attached.

The Market of Street Street known as the Coulson property in the "fall fleet," and a reduced export the "fall fleet," and the property is to itself those beheading and dethroing to itself those beheadi Also, the 'farm in Chatham, fronting on the "fall fleet," and a reduced export image. Also, a Lot of Land in Chatham on the East side of the Chapel Road, lying between the field of M. Buropean Lumber market, are lar-Dwyor and the Chatham Branch Rallway track.

Also, that Lot of Land in Glenelg, known as the McCully Meadows, containing about 350 Acres.

200 Acres. part of which is under cultivation, having been sown with Oats and laid down with Timothy and Cilover seed, this season.

For further particulars apply to A. H. JOHNSON.

Chatham, N. B. July 15th, 1879.

Tobacco! Tobacco!!

from acting upon.

Privy Conneillors

board. For all practical purposes, how- were appointed.

been made one of the two hundred and fifty, will enjoy the distinction, because

The Quebec Deadlock.

he thirsts for power and fame.

T HAVE just received a large Stock of

W: C: McDONALD'S TOBACCO. which I will sell in Bond or Duty paid, CHEAPER THAN CANBE IMPORTED. Call and see Samples and prices. ISAAC HARRIS.

Water St., Chatham. $1,500 TO 6000 A YEAR, or $5 to $20 s day in your own locality. No risk. Women do as well as men. Many make more can make from 50cta to §2 an hour by deroting your evenings and spare time to the business. It costs nothing to try the business. Northeg like it for noney making ever offered before. But like it for noney making ever offered before. But like pleasent and strictly honorable. Reader, the want to know all about the best paying business before the public, send us your address and we will send you full particulars and private terms free; samples worth §5 also free; you can then make up your mind for yourself. Address GEORGE STINSON & CO., Portland, Maine

LIST OF Wholesale and Tavern Licences.

GRANTED BY The Northumberland County Council, at July Sittings, 1879.

Parish Licenses. Term. Tav. W sale. NELSON_ Matthew Carrol, 6 m Joseph Hays, NEWCASTLE— James Doyle, 6
Patrick Farrell, 6
Charles J. Maltby. 6
Jane Wheeler, 6
Stephen V. Mitchell, 6
James B. Russell, 6
Alex. Stewart, 6
John Fave. 6 John Faye, John F. Jardine, CHATHAM-Michael Hickey, Michael Brennan, John Meehan, William Mills, John Donalds. George Traer, John Currie, James Clowrie, John M'Gowan,

SAM'L THOMSON

James M'Carthy, Daniel Desmond, Roger Flannagan, John Johnston,

Sec'y-Treas., Co. North'ld

Hon. Mr. Starnes said every impartial person would admit that the motion he made the other day, suggesting a conference with the Lower House. showed how 15,084,843 2,142,013 anxious the Government was to arrive at a solution of the difficulty brought about by the action of this Chamber. The Government had no doubt that the country would approve of their action.

Hon. Mr. DeBoucherville disapproved of the disapproved of the disapproved. 9,408,201 28,337,085 of the adjournment of the Assemble regretted that the Government ba regretted that the Government had no advised the Lieutenant-Governor to sanc tion the Bills which had passed through both Houses. He read a list of Bills of Bulls of Nays, 3, The Council then adjourned till 11 a.m. 3,165,353 1,752,151 1,577,244 1,988,360 4,741,482 The Toronto Globe's correspondent at Quebec says:-Notwithstanding the efforts 479,407 of the Government to re-establish harmony 289,429 between the two branches of the Legisla 14.182.658 ture, it will be seen by the report of today's proceedings of the Legislative Council that that body has undertaken to blame the Government for leaving undone through its Inspector, should be resort-594,000 what it effectually prevented them from ed to. In the main, the result is satisfactory, for nothing but a lessening lessening of the present deadlock is not easily foreseen; but Mr. Joly will not resign while his Government portation in which they have indulged, pond to the English House of Commons, is. and that the lesson of the hour, though the lesson of the hour, the lesson of the hour, though the lesson of the hour, the lesson of the ho for the season is now assured. The discouraging fact, however, remains

The Montreal Star of ord 1984, has the following on the Quebec crisis:—

From a private source, which should be fact that petitions affecting the fisheries of different parts of the County and other ports which control the adjournment has been granted by the Gov. have generally been circulated privateween the field of M. Editopean Edither market, are largiven than at the corresponding date last year, showing that the demand is
last year, showing that the demand is cil reconsidering its determination to refuse the supplies. Should they not at the last year, showing that the demand is cil reconsidering its determination to refuse the supplies. Should they not at the expiration of that time have done so, then public, or others even more closely instill weak and the long-looked-for ral- will be added a dissolution, and Mr. Joly terested, being allowed to know what still weak and the long-looked-for rally still delayed. The moral is obvious and it is to be hoped that the coming season will be marked by a still further restriction of operations, both in the woods and at the mills. It is only folly to ignore the lessons It is only folly to ignore the lessons of the last four years, backed up, as they are, by facts of which we all feel the force, and which only business.

the force and which only business recklessness can prevent our operators of the people's representatives. An intrigue is said to be in progress to keep Hon. Mr. Chapleau in Quebec—Mr. Cartion shows that in 1877-8, Inspector Parliament. This is said to have been de-From twelve, the original number, having boasted that he was determined to Set," and others residing between Bay the Privy Council of England has been redeem Quebec will have a chance to do du Vin and Point Cheval, asking the gentleman, whose mission is, in most cases, to do nothing. Privy Councillors take precedence next after Knights of the subject. Work can hardly be stopped the Garter. The emoluments are nil, upon the Hull Bridge, as iron has risen and Huckleberry Island entertained the and politicians who look upon honor as much in price and labour may also become Inspector's proposition, but when it was the end-all of their existence often find a refuge in the circle of Privy Councillors, who sometimes "advise" Her Ma-ever, the functions of Privy Councillor John A. Macdonald, who has recently ing the Fox Island nets. It says :-

On Tuesday of last week the Onebec Assembly after passing a vote of confidence in the Joly Government, adjourned for two months, an effort by Hon. Mr. Starnes. representing the Government in the Legis-Hon. Mr. Starnes said he had had no communication with his colleagues since the adjournment of the Lower House. He asked that the Council adjourn till one of said meeting the fishermen were allowed to set their nets from Fox Island just tha same as they always did, not-sult with his colleagues.

Hon. Mr. DeBoucherville thought that intention of the Government in adjourning the Assembly was to enable them to reconstruct the Cabinet and to afford time to hold the elections of new Ministers before the House reassembles.

Hon. Mr. Ross doubted the charitable intention of the Robert Noble's and that, in consequence of said meeting the fishermen of the locality and Overscer williston he learned that the representations on which the Inspector had obtained the order were "a tissue of deliberate falsehoods" and he immediately suspended it.

A RUSSEL HOUSE CONCLAVE.

Soconvinced was the Department of the Lower House. He asked that the Council adjournment of the Embassy are defending on the first place, it would not have been given. This shows the evil of his system referred to above. The Generals Roberts and to afford time to hold the elections of new Ministers before the House reassembles.

Hon. Mr. Ross doubted the charitable of said meeting the fishermen were allowed to set their nets from Fox Island do verification on which the Inspector resorted to falsehoods" and he immediately suspended it.

A RUSSEL HOUSE CONCLAVE.

Soconvinced was the Department of the Government in adjourning the Assembly was to enable them to reconstruct the Cabinet and to afford time to hold the elections of new Ministers before the House reassembles.

A RUSSEL HOUSE CONCLAVE.

Soconvinced was the Department of the matter. Had it not been that the Inspector resorted to falsehoods or the matter. Had it not been that the Inspector resorted to the falsehood for the purpose of obtaining the order, in the first place, it would not have been given. This shows the evil of his system referred to above. The Order of Alkheyl with news that the stream o cision arrived at by this honourable House Venning on the beach, in which he pro- agers whom we could name, and Mr. Muirhead Inspector Venning and Over- Thursday night, a messenger, travelling dividual person, or simply from co-part

WHY THE "ADVANCE" GIVES THE FACTS. The fishermen interested were nearly all supporters of the protectionist party in the late Dominion election, and several what good can at present come out of our exposing the doings of Senator Muirhead and the Inspector on 21st o so important a public interest as the sions, provided they are properly con- to get the signatures of the fishermen sulted, and it has, therefore, always to it first. seemed unnecessary that the system of

We pass over the "Fishery Reguwent the utter demoralization of the market, and bring disaster upon those engaged in the trade. It is quite well by an Order in Council under the Ninety Sixth Section of the said Act, to declare that the Second Part of the said Act, to declare that the Second Part of the said Act, to declare the ninety sixth Section of the said Act, to declare the segan to decline, there was an expection. began to decline, there was an expectation on this side of the Atlantic that ments from the Government until the several restrictive and regulating "orders," which have since been made and, And your petitioners will ever pray &c.
And that we desire that the votes of all the electors of the said County be taken for and against the adoption of the a spirit of speculation, which anticipated a rise in prices, prompted the plus ultra of inconsistency. That gentle-only practical experiences of our fisherexcessive production which has been man told his hearers in the strongest terms ies were gained on the fluvial portions a feature of the business during the at his command that he regarded the of some of our rivers, in services which a feature of the business during the past three years, even in the face of a constantly discouraging market. Mill-owners and shippers have, at last, been forced to act upon the logic of events. They have learned that the great commercial depression prevailing in Europe, as it has in this country for several years, could not justify the reckless over-production and over-exportation in which they have included.

ernment to admit of the Legislative Coun- ly, at the instigation of fishery of on's name being mentioned as the successor of Hon. Mr. Masson in the Dominion wade an attempt, privately, to get up Parliament. This is said to have been desired by the member for Terrebonne, who fishermen not interested in the "Long works will suffer, as nothing has yet been Department to order that no net be set said to the Government engineers upon off Fox Island longer than 150 fathoms. lors, who sometimes "advise" Her Majesty what to do. A Committee of the Council is invested with some power, but only six members and one of the lots of the council is invested with some power, but only six members and one of the lots of the council is invested with some power, but only six members and one of the lots of the council is invested with some power, but only six members and one of the lots of the council is invested with some power. but only six members and one of the clerks are necessary to constitute a but only six members and one of the clerks are necessary to constitute a by the friends by whom most of them by the friends by the friends by whom most of them by the friends by t circulation was abandoned. The Inare now more honorary than real. Sir Further Light on a Vexed Question. spector took the deleat of his above than usually blasphemous and profane The Sun, after a silence of more than during his short visit to Chatham, on a week, practically confesses its inathat occasion, as several of our fisherthat occasion, as several of our fishermen who had left it with him, saying "this business can all be brawler and fighter in his shirt sleeves brawler, only you must stick to us" the contractors for the Kent would have been answered, of course, by any of the parties interested! Nobody bility to deal with our charges concern- men remember, although it was not the We simply repeat our original statement that the Advance's "charges in reference to the Fox Island Net Question" are "a tissue of Deliberate falsehoods."

TISSUE OF DELIBERATE FALSEHOODS."

Same time that the access the part of a brawler and fighter in his shirt sleeves to the Fox Island Net Question are "a continue to the street in Newcastle and received a thrashing for using profane and ined a thrashing for using profane and in-

The Sun puts the last four words in sulting language. The failure of his ed and who assure us this exposure of pleted the chain of strongly entrenched The Sun puts the last four words in capitals, just as the Inspector wrote petitions among the fishermen did not, the Inspector and his friends may lead the Inspector and his friends may lead posts which now extend from east to west for them. Everybody cares, however, the in the little paragraph. It is so however, cause him to abandon his deto the enforcement of the order next across the centre of Zululand, at intervals whether the man who is employed on a with the Lower House, having been reject- like the Inspector! When a fisherman signs on the Fox Island nets, but by rewith the Lower House, having been rejected by the Upper Chamber. This very proper move on the part of Mr. Joly caused no little commotion among the conservative old gentlemen whose action had clogged the Government machinery as the following report of proceedings in the Upper House on 2nd inst, shows:

Hon. Mr. Ross said before moving the adjournment, he wished to know if the Government had any communication to seed to be the Upper House of about twenty miles. I must apologize the Minister and Commission, and is employed on a public mission, and is employed on a public mission, and is employed on a public mission, and is entrusted with their own disposal, if they have but the pluck to deal with it. On the 22nd May we were informed of the understanding that was arrived at in Bay du Vin the day previous, but refrained is such application. The matter is entirely at their own disposal, if they have but the pluck to deal with it. On the 22nd May we were informed of the understanding that was arrived at in Bay du Vin the day previous, but refrained is such application. The matter is entirely at their own disposal, if they have but the pluck to deal with it. On the 22nd May we were informed of the understanding that was arrived at in Bay du Vin the day previous, but refrained is such application. The matter is entirely at their own disposal, if they have but the pluck to deal with it. On the 22nd May we were informed of the understanding that was arrived at in Bay du Vin the day previous, but refrained from exposing the transaction, because we knew the Inspector would think and their own disposal, if they have but the pluck to deal with it. On the 22nd May we were informed of the understanding that was arrived at in Bay du Vin the day previous, but refrained from exposing the transaction, because we knew the Inspector would think and the list of the Minister and Commission and that their prayer was endors and that their Hon. Mr. Ross said before moving the adjournment, he wished to know if the Government had any communication to make to this House about the existing deadlock. The Lower House had adjournment in the deadlock. The Lower House had adjournment in the Sun to deny that Senator movel has not the matter. The fishermen interested at high for two months without tak. Muirhead, Overseer Wyse and himself went to Bay du Vin in the steamer Andiorer on Friday, 21st May last; that the course the Government intended to follow.

Hon. Mr. Starnes said he had had no communication with his colleagues since of said meeting the fishermen were allowed in the same of the locality and Overseer williston he learned that the result being the case above referred to the Inspector of 1878,—instead of 1877, as we inadout the existing of 1878,—inste construction the hon. gentleman put upon the action of the Government.

THE SECRET SYSTEM.

THE SECRET SYSTEM.

The Canadian Fishery Commissioner to that his powers were considerably to the Canadian Fishery Commissioner to the Canadi Senator Muirhead and Overseer Wyse, restricted, even after the result of the was, himself, constrained by his sense of surprised. The populace joined the mu-The Council then adjourned till 12.30

Mr. Speaker took his seat shortly before a council the speaker took h head, who were interested, complained caprice. of them whom we have seen have asked what good can at present come out of what good c Muirhead and the Inspector on 21st the Department that there was a general feeling in favor of the order and aim is to have all matters relating an urgent character which should have been permitted to at once become law.

The motion was carried:— Yeas, 13;

The motion was carried:— Yeas, 13;

A memorial signed by Fox seemed unnecessary that the system of dealing with our fisheries which has

A memorial signed by Fox (London Times, August 22.)

Island fishermen and a very large A public address from the Capetown been in favor with the department, majority of those of Bay du Vin citizens was presented to Lord Chelmsford (not one to whom it was presented re- at Government House, acknowledging his fusing to sign it) was therefore presented services and congratulating him on the by a Fox Island fisherman to Overseer successful conclusion of the military opera-Wyse for his signature early in May tions in Zululand. In reply, he refe are desirous that the second part of the stocks held abroad could predate of the confidence of the Lower House and of the people, and the Council alone will be responsible for the suffering and are simply a source of amusement to responsible for the suffering and coloured the writings of index of the suffering and coloured the writings of index of the continuous positions. The continuous factory, for nothing but a lessening of the confidence of the Lower House berland," printed by the Department and of the people, and the Council alone will be responsible for the suffering and coloured the writings of index of the confidence of the Lower House berland," printed by the Department and of the people, and the Council alone will be responsible for the suffering and coloured the writings of index of the stocks held abroad could prevent the under date of "May 1875," and which will be responsible for the suffering and coloured the writings of index of the stocks held abroad could prevent the under date of "May 1875," and which will be responsible for the suffering and coloured the writings of index of the confidence of the Lower House berland," printed by the Department and order for the shortening of the suffering and coloured the writings of index of the confidence of the Lower House berland," printed by the Department and order for the shortening of the suffering and the confidence of the Lower House berland," printed by the Department and order for the shortening of the suffering and the confidence of the Lower House berland," printed by the Department and order for the shortening of the English press, showing that party and coloured the writings of the stocks held abroad could prevent the confidence of the Lower House berland," printed by the Department to the confidence of the Lower House berland, and the confidence of the Lower last. It set forth that those whose to the misrepresentations of his conduct of fathoms had been obtained from the judgment and coloured the writings of the fishermen interested deemed it desirable and had asked for it—desired to assure the Department that they had neither asked for the restriction tion and vacillation, and it has also been week before last, viz :--Such pressure was then brought to bear instead of 150, as the order stipulated, but they were to be allowed to commence setting 50 fathoms from the shore and to fill in the 50 fathoms from the shore to the place of beginning with what they pleased.

Ent Railway.

Ent Railway.

Ent Railway.

To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance:

THE PROPER TIME WAITED FOR. the order by the Inspector and Senator, | plete dispersion, there would have been no would sign a memorial to the Depart-lating Departmental orders—but by an of a set of corrupt politicians in vio- on the premises. Experience in this province proves that when the general good is to be accomplished the people readily make conces- also sign it, but that it would be better never, for a moment, been enforced

Lord Chelmsford on His Defence.

Department, on the representation that the fighermon interested deemed it nor deemed it desirable for either the stated that I have completely lost the cona spirit of speculation, which anticitude of Mr. Chapleau is certainly the ne spector. Unfortunately, his real and promotion or protection of the fisheries. fidence of all but my personal staff. As escaped. Overseer Wyse requested that the me- regards the last charge, I am proud to morial be left with him, in order that feel justified in meeting it with a distinct he might obtain Senator Muirhead's signature to it and it was so left. When the fisherman who left it called gard to the charge of hesitation and vacilagain Mr. Wyse said it would not look well for him to sign it as he was an officer of the Deposit well for him to sign it as he was an at a very early date that I would endeaver the first outbreak, after stoning the officers, at a very early date that I would endeaver the meaning of the Deposit well for him to sign it as he was an at a very early date that I would endeaver the meaning of the Deposit well for him to sign it as he was an at a very early date that I would endeaver the meaning of the date of officer of the Department, and that our to reach Ulundi by the route which I Senator Muirhead thought it would eventually took, and I never swerved from be best for him not to sign it just yet, until another way of getting over the the relief of Ekowe I left instructions as "Thousands assembled to destroy the by Mr. Landry in the columns of the columns until another way of getting over the difficulty was resorted to. Meantime, it was understood that the fishermen it was understood that the fishermen to arrive, and that distribution was not both sides. I, with five attendants, were Landry admit in "Subscriber's "presence both with five attendants, were Landry admit in "Subscriber's "presence Landry admit in "Subs were to set their nets as usual, although altered. The soundness of my plan of the uninitiated were given to understand that the long sets were to be seized.

campaign is of course, open to criticism, bave no certain news of the Envoy, but I have no hesitation in saying that seized.

for "Subscriber's" veracity whether he was killed in his quarters or had I the work to do over again I should captured. WHAT THE MEMORIAL LED TO.

What we have stated above may serve

Make no change in my arrangements. My demands for supplies and transport on the to assure certain interested parties northern line of advance were such as to that their course in this whole matter tax severely the energies and resources of Cabul some time ago. The bearing of the ingly characterizes himself as the worst The Montreal Star of 3rd inst., has the following on the Quebec crisis:—

From a private source, which should be reliable, we learn that the two months adjournment has been granted by the Government to adjournment has been granted by the Government to adjournment to adjournme

We quote from the ADVANCE of the difficulty. When every day's delay, however, was a matter of serious moment, it ly, but all were killed, including Major off another king's wife. After a time he would not have been wise to haggle too on Senator Muirhead and his friend closely about prices, and I believe that on Overseer Wyse, that Inspector Venning lastened to Miramichi in May last to assist in arranging the difficulty.

n Friday, 21st May, Senator Muirhead, demand furnish a satisfactory defence to In Friday, 21st May, Senator Muirhead, Inspector Venning and Overseer Wyse went, on the Andover to Hardwick. There they were met by Overseer Williston and a meeting was held at the House of Mr. Robert Noble, the doors being closed against the fishermen who were supposed to sympathise with the "Grits," until a decision was arrived at. The result of the meeting was that the dicating the character of the people of Fox Island Fishermen interested in the "long set" were given to understand that 200 fathoms would be allowed them, instead of 150, as the order stipulated, and slight misapprehensions which appear to exist regarding my movements before and what they pleased.

The fishermen, very properly "pleased" to fill in the 50 fathoms just as they had always done—voith nets—and these, together with the 200 fathoms allowed, made the long set 250 fathoms.

Wolseley. The difficulties of our advance on Ulundi by the coast roads had been verseer Williston knows these nets were on Ulundi by the coast roads had been men were to help the Inspector next winter in his crusade against the use of bag-nets in the smelt fishery.

fet quite satisfied that the former would be strong enough to carry out the task before it. I need scarcely tell you that I refer to the former would be strong enough to carry out the task before it. I need scarcely tell you that I refer to the former would be strong enough to carry out the task before it. I need scarcely tell you that I refer to the former would be strong enough to carry out the task before it. I need scarcely tell you that I refer to the former would be strong enough to carry out the task before it. I need scarcely tell you that I refer to the former would be strong enough to carry out the task before it. I need scarcely tell you that I refer to the former would be strong enough to carry out the task before it. fore it. I need scarcely tell you that I reccived no orders forbidding me to advance.

Fox Island long sets. Political friends verted into "privileges" to be granted of Overseer Wyse and Senator Muiror witheld as a matter of political and destroyed, and the British Embassy late Parliament.—EDITOR.] to them and blamed them for assisting THE ORIGIN OF THE ATTACK ON THE was then attacked by overwhelming numbers. The Ameer declares he was com- " Fair Play " Replies te" Subthe Inspector in the matter. They protested that they had no hand in it. Who caused the attack upon the Fox pletely surprised by the outbreak. He declared that it was all the Inspector's work and that he had represented to work and that he had represented to among a majority of the Fox Island not by a private understanding such as mob was wholly uncontrollable. The atthat of May 21st, by which the fisher-tack on the British Embassy continued

The Viceroy of India is at present ignorant of the fate of Major Cavagnari and the other members of the Embassy. Gen. Roberts has already started for the Peiwar pass. The advance on Cabul will be made very speedily and will be strongly supported. The Viceroy's military cretary accompanies General Roberts. have been recalled from Pishin and are reoccupying Candahar. Yakoob Khan asked for British aid.

Badshath Khau, who holds a country beyond Shutargarden pass, has offered his ervices to the British. Major Conolly reported all quiet yesterday to and beyond Shutagarden pass.

SIMLA, Sept. 7—6 p. m.— According to authentic information from Ali Kheyl. that nine troopers belonging to the escort cessary to prevent its being entirely lost,

India office is to the effect that an attack on the British embassy was begun by three Afghan regiments, which were join. or could it be just possible this money ed later by nine others.

it. Several volleys were fired from the embassy in return, as the second letter this change was first made by correspondbeseiged all day yesterday. Up to now I having received this money. So correspondent at Bombay asserts that carrying him among the instructed by the Inspector to unce: "a tissue of falsehoods"—

When every day's delay, how.

In a very been brought against the inhabitants of Natal with regard to the transport ings of the embassy were fired the survivors held out and defended themselves desperations of another king's wife. After a time he intrigue. duty is to act with firmness and courage.

What has happened by no means creates similar to those made by Dermod to Strongbow, he succeeded in securing the services of a literary young man to write his effusions and clothe them in proper language. How he will succeed in this good fight time will tell, but I fear he is the leader of a forlorn hope.

Want of space forbids me doing justice to his noble cause, but perhaps in a future letter I will show this quondam "Subscriber" to be really no Subscriber at all. Now Mr. "Subscriber" while awaiting your apology for garbing extracts from the Public Reports, for misrepresenting expenditures legally made and for persisting a new situation. It does not supply a

In your last issue I observed a communication signed "Not Brown." the un avowed object of which was to silence enquiry respecting the $1,600 alleged to have been paid by "Brown & Co., or Brown" for continued and were in their usual places | brought to my notice soon after my arrival | the expenses of the survey of the Southern continued and were in their usual places until the fishing ceased on 15th Aug. These precious fishery regulators, or rather the Inspector and his mentor, enjoined that the matter was to be kept from the knowledge of the editor of the Advance—and certain of the Fox Island Fisher—eard certain of the Fox Island Fisher—were to help the Inspector next.

We may add to our statement of facts After the crushing defeat inflicted upon the ferred to. It was unnecessary. The enquiry was not made of some of those rentecedent to the practical quashing of Zulus at Ulundi and their subsequent comproofs are not wanting. Nobody blames "Brown & Co., or Brown" for paying that when the party reached Bay du Vin in the Andover on 21st May, Over-trate the difficult country lying north of the King's kraal, even had the state of sur-what purpose was it applied?—did that that when the party reached Bay du advantage gained by endeavouring to pene that money. That was their own affair the fisherman who had left it with im, saying "this business can all be axed quietly, only you must stick to us"—and it was "fixed."

—and it was "fixed."

—and it was "fixed."

—and it was the fishermen interested and wounded and taking with it all the empty waggons, the other moved via Kawanagwasa to St. Paul's, and there completed the chain of strongly entrenched posts which now extend from east to west across the centre of Zululand, at intervals of about twenty miles. I must apologize of about twenty miles. I must apologize of about twenty miles. I must apologize was that trust so exertises his funds for a specific purpose, exercises his that trust so exertises are sent to carrant.

After using the first bottle I began to improve would have been answered, of course, by any of the parties interested! Nobody cares whether, the contractors for the Kent R. R. answer a "worthless scribbler" or employ a "worthless sc port of the revolt. He was completely One word more: Mr. "Not Brown" says Mr. Speaker took his seat shortly before me o'clock.

Mr. Speaker took his seat shortly before me o'clock.

Mr. Starnes said—After the de
Who had the refreshments on the boat with certain members of the party, who an arrangement spector's misrepresentations, to publicly tacked by overwhelming numbers.

Hon. Mr. Starnes said—After the de
Who had the refreshments on the boat with certain members of the party, who arrangement spector's misrepresentations, to publicly tacked by overwhelming numbers.

Hon. Mr. Starnes said—After the de
Who had the refreshments on the boat with certain members of the party, who said seased state of "Enquirer's mind results from abuses of the body," I wonder if he spector's misrepresentations, to publicly tacked by overwhelming numbers.

London, Sept. 7.—At a late hour on knows this from experience in his own in
No. Starnes said—After the de
Who had the refreshments on the boat with certain members of the party, who are from abuses of the body," I wonder if he spector's misrepresentations, to publicly tacked by overwhelming numbers.

London, Sept. 7.—At a late hour on knows this from experience in his own in
Mr. Starnes said—After the de
Who had the refreshments on the boat with certain members of the party, who are from abuses of the body," I wonder if he with certain members of the party, who are from abuses of the body," I wonder if he will be a combination capable of generating a combination capable of

CRATERIM. - SEPTEMPER II, 1879.

The Lumber Trade.

The effect of the over-production of former years and of the continued dulness of; general trade abroad, appears in the figures representing the shipments of lumber from the two principal lumber ports of New Bruns-wick — St. John and Miramichi.— The Shipments of furnity for the adjournance, and Hiramichi.— The Shipments of furnity for the adjournance, and the Government will continued administration which simed at the Miramichi for the last fiscal year fell.

The shipments of revy considerably, but hardly to the motion review of the revy considerably, but hardly to the the motion made by me on Monday sat, the House of Assembly thought proper to adjourn and the Government hopes that the motion made by me on Monday sat, the House of Assembly thought proper to adjourn and the Government hopes that the adjournment will contribute towards that harmony which is so desirable under the adjournment will contribute towards that harmony which is so desirable under the adjournment will contribute towards that harmony which is so desirable under the adjournment will contribute towards that harmony which is so desirable under the adjournment will contribute towards that harmony which is so desirable under the adjournment will contribute towards that harmony which is so desirable under the dillness of; general trade abroad, appears in the figure representing the shipments of unmber from the two principal lumber ports of New Bruns-wick — St. John and Miramichi.— The Shipments from St. John, and Miramichi for the last fiscal type of the Appears of the proposed to us pincipal lumber ports of New Bruns-wick — St. John and Miramichi.— The Shipments from St. John, and Miramichi for the last fiscal type of the proposed the following of very considerably, but hardly to the motion made by me of Miramichi Theorem Cable and informed Major Connolly. He must have the fisher men, whose right and each the shipment will be carefully an administration which aims and informed Major Connolly. off very considerably, but hardly to the extent expected by those not immediately identified with the trade, while the falling off during the month of August 1879, when compared with August of lass year, is a surprise all around, and especially so in St. John. The figures are as follows:

The public good. He proposed the following resolutions:

The public good of the proposed the following resolutions:

The public good of the proposed the following resolutions:

The public good of the proposed the following resolutions:

The public good of the public good of the public good of the public good of the proposed of the public good of the proposed to the Pewara Stranger to some of the Advance were a stranger to some of the public good of the proposed to the Pewara Stranger to some of the public good o scriber."

POKEMOUCHE, August 30th, 1879. remarks by dictating to you who should to Supervisor Walsh "putting $600 ia his father's name for dressing lumber. I can find no such entry in the Public Accounts, but I find James Walsh sr. used in building Cody's Bridge. this entry should be construed thus, I ask 'Subscriber" to explain, especially when the" old centleman" bearing that name "Subscriber" well knows that a quantity of bridge material was on hand by the SIMLA, Sept. 7.—The troops of all arms was let to himself to build, this lumber was made use of. The following winter the replacing of this lumber was let at public mpetition and the contract taken by James Walsh, who got the lumber and was paid $600 for it-hence "Subscriber's"

Next on the list are those "4 spruce poles" costing $154 which "Subscriber says could be done for $100. Perhaps he could remember seeing some half dozen some of the natives have come in and reported that they have seen the dead bodies bridge lumber that was broken loose in a men engaged in collecting and securing f British officers at Cabul. It is rumored storm: its immediate collecting being ne-LONDON, Sept. 7.—Intelligence from the repairs of the bridge which really cost only some $12. Again $1000 for repairing the same span. Don't this look dreadful was paid for building that new bridge at The Ameer writes that the troops at the Mr. Sewell's though classed as repairs?

who denies having received it. When LONDON, Sept., 8th.: The Standard's which he resorts to poetry, his fancy symptoms of discontent were noticed at seems to be quite at home.) He unwitt-Cavagnari. There is intense excitement throughout India. It is believed at Paris induced an English Earl to assist him in the recovery of his kingdom, by a promise that the outbreak was due to Russian of his daughter in marriage. We may liken "Subscriber" to this deposed king, The Times, on the revolt says :- "Our as he is fighting for the office from which bow, he succeeded in securing the services Public Reports, for misrepresenting expenditures legally made and for persisting in false statements, which you saw contradicted in the columns of the Advocate; I again subscribe myself. FAIR PLAY.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For

Is of marvellous efficacy in the treatment of Son Weak, Infismed, Red or Mattery Eyes; Ulceration and Infiamation of the Ea. Violent Pains, Net Algia, Ringing Noises in the Head, Delirium an Teafness; Sore Throat, Ulcerated Sore Throa Elongation of the Uvula, Swelling of the Tonsil lickling Cough and Bleeding of the Lungs; Nerous Headache, Dizziness, cloaded Memory, Los Bosros, Feb. 23.

It instantly frees the Nasal Passages of foul mucous accumulations, restores the senses of taste and smell, leaving the head deodorized, clear and open, the breath sweet, and every sense is a grateful and soothed condition.

Price, with Improved Inhaler, Treatise and Directions, 31.00. Sold by all druggists throughout the United States and Canadas.

The Greatest Medical Wonder of This Century.

Pain and Weakness cannot exist where

PRICE 25 CENTS.