MAYOR STEEVES, OF MONCTON, SHUBBED BY TEMPERANCE MEN

He Would Not Act as Chairman at the Smith Lecture in Rev. Mr. Thomas' Church and Will Not Be Allowed to Represent the City at a Public Meeting

MONCTON, Nov. 28.—In view of the fact that Mayor Steeves refused to preside at one of Tennyson Smith's temperance meetings which was to be held in Wesley Methodist church, because of personal feeling towards the pastor, temperance people have declined to have him act for the city in today's reception to the noted temperance worker. Rev. H. E. Thomas has for some time past been carrying on a temperance crusade from the pulpit and in his sermons has criticised pretty severely the civic administration as being responsible for laxity of Scott Act enforcement. When the programme of Tennyson Smith was announced, Mayor Steeves was asked to preside at a meeting in Wesley Methodist church, of which Mr. Thomas is pastor, and this he refused to do. Last night a meeting of the temperance workers was held and a report by the committee appointed to secure chairmen for the different meetings was brought in. It being that the mayor had refused to act at the opening meeting.
It was then moved, seconded and unanimously carried that the mayor's offer to represent the city at the reception to be held this afternoon be respectively declined.

The intermediate hockey teams management has received an intimation from the committee that the mayor of that place is willing to enter a league in which it is expected that Moncton, Riverview, Amherst and Sussex will participate.

There is no change in the local small-pox situation and no more cases have been reported. Joseph Donnet, the victim in the present case, is doing well and the house is being strictly guarded.

GERMAN MURDERER SEEMS TO BE OFF HIS HEAD

When Brought Into Court He Acted in a Rather Peculiar Manner.

LONDON, November 28.—Karl Hau, alias Stau, Professor of Roman Law in George Washington University, Washington, D. C., who has been under arrest here since November 7 on the charge of murdering his mother-in-law at Baden Baden, was again brought upon remand at the Bow street police court today.

When the presiding magistrate planned to the prisoner that the papers containing a mass of evidence had been received in Germany, but that there was still further technical evidence necessary before he could be formally extradited, and asked him whether he had anything to say, Hau, with startling eyes answered:—"I don't understand what this is all about."

The prisoner has apparently lost his reason or is feigning insanity. For several days he has been confined in the prison infirmary and closely guarded owing to fear that he might commit suicide.

The magistrate could not get anything from the prisoner but repeated statement:—"I don't know what it is all about."

Finally with the consent of Mr. Wilson, his counsel, the case was again reopened for a week.

The prison doctor has testified that Hau has been acting in an insane manner and he believes this to be assumed. A further medical examination of the prisoner will be held before the case is again called.

STORM ON LAKE ERIE CAUSES MUCH DAMAGE

A Lot of Vessels Had to Seek Shelter—One Is Reported Missing.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 28.—A gale which gained a velocity of 80 miles an hour, raged on Lake Erie, the greater part of yesterday and compelled even the big passenger boats to seek shelter.
The City of Erie, which left Buffalo Monday night, did not arrive till 11 o'clock last night, over 12 hours late.

Several vessels from the upper lakes which had been caught in the storm in that section and about whose safety great fears had been felt came into port late yesterday. The only craft missing from here is the "Whale-back" Barge 118, bound from Conneaut with coal, in tow of the steamer J. B. Eads, which broke away from the steamer 15 miles northwest of Fairport yesterday.

The tug Monarch, which was bound from Conneaut to Toledo with a scow, dropped her tow and she was sent out to search for the missing whaleback.

The latter, it is thought, will ride out the storm safely and will be found at anchorage.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 28.—A house situated at Victoria Mills, the property of the Scott Lumber Company, was completely destroyed by fire this morning. The dwelling was occupied by Edward Russell, who ran a boarding house. The building was insured for $200 with P. I. Morrison.

The infant son of Berton C. Brown, of Maryville, died this morning of diphtheria.

Victoria Mills will begin running tomorrow morning.

MUTINY ON BOARD STR. JAN JACINTO

Firemen in a Desperate Fight, Ending in Murder.

A Cuban Charged With the Crime—Others Under Arrest Refuse to Tell What the Fight Was About

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—One fireman was killed and a dozen severely beaten in a desperate row between firemen in the stockhold of the Malory Liner San Jacinto, as the vessel was rounding Cape Hatteras enroute from Galveston Monday night.

By wireless telegraph from Atlantic City Captain Evans notified police headquarters here, that when the steamer docked today a squad of police was there to take the alleged murderer and five others to the police station.

Manuel Conchero, a Cuban, is held for the murder of Pietro Molera, who died in an hour after he had been struck over the head with a shovel.

It was only at the point of revolvers that Captain Evans and another ship's officer subdued the fighters and resued Molera. Conchero was then unconscious from a blow in the head. His wounds and those of the rest of the firemen who were most hurt, were dressed by the steward. The ship's officers says that none of the crew of thirty firemen would disclose to them what the row was about. It first arose between Conchero and Molera over the passing of coal, and the others joined in the melee.

LIBRARY BARS MARK TWAIN BOOK

Worcester, Mass., Censors Think Eve Shouldn't Have Illustrated
Her Diary.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 27.—Mark Twain's book, "Eve's Diary," was barred today from the Chaffin Free Public Library because a woman attendant and a trustee were shocked by the pictures.

Among the 100 books delivered today was "Eve's Diary," Mrs. H. L. Carpenter, an employee, scanned the book from cover to cover.

There are etchings on every left hand page—fifty in all—and Mrs. Carpenter looked at them with varying emotions.

After one good, long final look she took the book to Trustee Frank C.
Wakefield. He also took a number of looks at the etchings, which depict Eve in all kinds of sumptuous costumes fashioned after the styles of her day and climate.

One in particular which showed Eve reclining on a rock engaged his attention and decided him to bar the book and call the other trustees, the Rev. George O. Jenness and Lewis A.
McIntyre. They will decide finally about the book, but Wakefield has no doubt it will be sent back.

One picture shows Eve skipping through the bushes unrestrained, but not at all afraid. The bushes do not seriously cut off the view of Eve.

Another noticeable etching shows Adam and Eve under the tree of knowledge, with Eve in the act of handing him a lemon.

GUATEMALAN TOWN WAS WIPE-OUT BY FLOOD

Fifty Persons Are Said to Have Been Drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—James Donnell, a coffee planter, who arrived here yesterday, from Guatemala, tells of the destruction of the little town of Tutupo during a hurricane which recently ravaged the neighboring coast.
Tutupo lies in an out of the way part of Tehuantepec and its population numbers about 5,000.

When the hurricane was at its height the town was inundated by a rise in the river on which it is situated and all the buildings were swept away. The inhabitants sought refuge in trees but many of them were washed away by flood. The news so far received from the scene of the disaster is not very definite in its character as regarding loss of life, but it is known that fully 50 persons were drowned.

OLDEST BAPTIST MINISTER IN AMERICA IS DEAD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 28.—Rev.
William Howe, a centenarian and the oldest Baptist clergyman in America, died at his home here today.
Dr. Howe had not been ill. He was found lifeless in his bed by a relative.
Dr. Howe had long been an invalid.
He was a member of the Baptist denomination. Up to his last he was conscious and retained the use of all his faculties.
Only a few months ago on the occasion of his 100th birthday, he attended a meeting of Baptist ministers in Tremont Temple, in Boston, and delivered a stirring address.

REAL ESTATE TRUST OFFICERS ARE UNDER INDICTMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—Wm. F.
North, treasurer, and M. S. Collins-wood, cashier, of the Real Estate Trust Co., at the time of its failure, were indicted today by the grand jury for complexity in the alleged crimes which brought about the collapse of the institution. Four indictments were returned against North charging him with perjury in making false statements as to the financial condition of the bank, and another bill charges him with accepting deposits when he knew the company was insolvent. Collins-wood is charged with accepting deposits under the same circumstances, and also with embezzlement.

ST. LAWRENCE ROUTE ATLANTIC NAVIGATION CLOSED YESTERDAY

MONTREAL, Nov. 27.—The closing of this season of Atlantic navigation via the St. Lawrence route is marked by the departure from Montreal today of the Canadian Pacific railway stmr.
Lake Manitoba, with six hundred and thirty passengers. This is the last passenger ship sailing from Montreal this year.

The royal mail stmr. Empress of Ireland, the first on the winter port schedule, sails from St. John, N. B., on the 30th of November.

WOLFVILLE NEWS.

WOLFVILLE, Nov. 27.—During the recent high tides the Bishop dyke on the Cornwallis River broke and let in a stream of water. A large staff of men were employed and the rapid repairs prevented serious damage.

Action has recently been taken by the Kings Co. Temperance Alliance against W. W. Pineo of Waterville and Dr. Covert of Canimac in connection with the recent election.

A beautiful memorial window has been presented to Christ church, Berwick by Mrs. Crispo in memory of her husband, Francis Crispo, late reader of the church during the incumbency of the late Rev. Mr. Ellis.

Joseph R. McDonald, late station agent here of the D. A. R., who has been very ill of typhoid fever at Port Arthur, Ont., is reported to be improving.

Capt. Tingley of Sackville was the guest this week of his brother, Capt.
Tingley of this town.

The popular news agent of the D.
A. R. at Kentville, Harry McPherson, was married on Wednesday to Miss Claire Estremond of Middleton by the Rev. P. Young.

S. P. Benjamin, lumber merchant of this town, has recently shipped 65,565 feet of spruce and pine lumber by the ship Malden to Havana.

The Wolfville Baptist church organ, which was badly injured by fire in the spring, has been repaired and was used for the first time on Sunday last. A

ALD. VANWART UPHOLDS THE METHODS OF SAFETY BOARD.

Says Its Record for the Past Year is a Good One—
He Will Answer "Citizens" Letter, if the Writer Cares to Make His Name Public

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 28.—Four men were burned to death and probably 35 were injured in a fire early today that practically destroyed the Light House Hotel, conducted by the Salvation Army at the northwest corner of 8th and Market streets.

More than 200 men were asleep in the building when the fire was discovered, the greater number being on the second and third floors. All became panic stricken, and before the firemen arrived and could stretch nets many had jumped from the upper windows and were picked up crushed and unconscious on the street below. The four dead have not been identified as their bodies were too much burned.

THE ASSYRIAN CAME DOWN LIKE A WOLF ON THE FOLD

Nearly a Score of Him in Police Court Today About an Alleged Assault.

There was a race to the police station this morning between Fred Morley and Fred Isaacs, two Assyrians from the Erin street colony. They each charged the other with assault and only the stern voice of the guard room official kept them quiet. Morley was allowed to go for witnesses, and when court opened no less than 13 Assyrians, some of them recently imported, were on hand.

Among the visitors was a young, well dressed man named Corey who is visiting friends in the city.

He claimed Eastport, Maine, as his home, and had acted as interpreter.
It appears that Fred Morley and his brother George were in opposition to Fred Isaacs in meeting steamer and train and soliciting Assyrian immigrants, taking them to the American immigration office and interpreting for them. Isaacs is a newer man in the business than Morley, and there seems to be some ill feeling. This morning when the first train from the east arrived young Morley with an immigrant friend was on hand as was Isaac. There had been some warm talk when the bunch of interpreters reached the colony and the result was one charging the other with assault.
After a number of witnesses had been examined and there was much contradictory evidence, Isaacs was adjudged guilty and was fined $30.

It seems that when there is the least trouble in the colony it ends in a race for the police court and the evidence is generally contradictory. The magistrate said this morning if it was proven that threats were being made by one against the other or that witnesses were not swearing truthfully, there would perhaps be a serious case made out.

25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR WEDDING

ST. MARTINS, Nov. 28.—On Friday evening last, 23rd inst., over 30 friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
James DeLong to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their wedding, who were greatly surprised at the arrival of so many visitors, but the surprise was changed to pleasure as they realized the kindness which had prompted such a peaceful invasion. After supper the guests spent in pleasant conversation and refreshments were served by the ladies. The company then adjourned to the parlor, where the Rev. C. W.
Townsend, in behalf of the committee, and in the name of the subscribers, read an address, setting forth the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. DeLong are held by a wide circle of friends, extending to them congratulations upon the completion of a quarter of a century of happy married life and expressing best wishes for their future and the hope that the silver might be transmuted to gold.

Mr. Townsend then, in appropriate and humorous terms asked their acceptance of several beautiful articles of silverware. He also stated that an additional fund had come in, other articles to correspond would follow.
The entire presentation represented nearly $50 in value. Among those unable to be present, who had sent letters and generous subscriptions were D. J. Purdy, M. P. P.; Dr. Riddick, M. P. P.; W. H. Thorne & Co.; Councillor Conley, John D. and George Smith of Concord, Mass., brothers of Mrs.
John Lennox; Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. A.
De Long; Councilor Cochran; Mrs.
S. White, Sussex; Mr. Love, manager of the O'Neill-Lumber Co.; Mrs. S. E.
Vaughan and Mrs. Allan Love. In reply to the presentation, Mr. DeLong said a few words expressive of gratitude.

Among those present were Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Townsend, Capt. and Mrs.
Albion, Mrs. Albert White, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Black, Captain and Mrs. G.
McDonough, Captain and Mrs. A. Mc-Donough, George Vaughan and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs.
H. H. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. W.
Cronk, Jr., Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Aubrey Vaughan; Mrs. H. A. Fowles; Charles Bradshaw of Boston and many others, including a large number of young people.

Frederickton young man, J. Arthur Estey, a member of the Acadia senior class, is the new organist.

In spite of the fact that the town was enveloped in darkness for some hours on Thursday evening, on account of a break down of one of the electric steam pikes, the annual roll call of the Wolfville Baptist church was held and over 100 answered to their names. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

P. E. ISLAND BY-ELECTION.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Nov.
28.—At the Liberal convention yesterday at Bradabane, John S. Cousins of Bark Corner was nominated as candidate for the first district of Queens in the provincial legislature for the seat of the late Hon. George Simpson.
