MRS. MATTHEW'S LECTURE

School Course Series at Natural History Society Opened Yesterday

The opening lecture in the school course was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Geo. F. Matthews, who has been lecturing on the subject of the Natural History of the Province of New Brunswick. There was a large attendance at the lecture, many High School students being present.
Mrs. Matthews spoke of the opening of the new building, and of the museum and library of the High School. She spoke of the proximity of the Natural History Building and the High School Building, expressing the hope that the scholars would often visit the museum and the library. She spoke of the appearance and position of the museum and of the various objects of interest in it, mentioning particularly the fossils which were brought from Greenland by Peary, the Arctic explorer.

Other very interesting exhibits were described by Mrs. Matthews in a lucid and highly interesting style.
The next lecture of the course is Some French Cathedral. Mrs. John Sealy will deliver the lecture on next Thursday afternoon at four o'clock.

NEW GLASGOW REPENT.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 10.—The New Glasgow Athletic Association which was suspended by the Maritime Provinces Association for playing professionals in the Stanley Cup matches, has applied for reinstatement and a meeting of the Maritime executive will be held Monday. Percy McDonald of the Truro team who played with the New Glasgow in the second game against the Wanderers, also applied for reinstatement and filed an affidavit that he received no money or promise of any.
The proposition for a league antagonistic to the Nova Scotia Amateur League has been dropped and the New Glasgows are alone in non-amateur hockey in Nova Scotia.

BLAME THE RIGHT PARTIES.

Popular agitation in Prince Edward Island over the handling of the winter steamers has reached such a stage that to avoid any regrettable situation the federal government must soon take some decided action. It appears that important shipping point, and centrally located, has been open for practically the whole winter, up to date. At the present time schooners are passing out and in and the straits between Charlottetown and Pictou are and have been perfectly free from ice, excepting for perhaps patches of a few inches in thickness through which small boats could, without difficulty, make a way.
Not for weeks past, or almost even since the first frost, the ice-breaking steamers Stanley and Minto have been running between Georgetown, the eastern port on the island, and Pictou.
The passage has been clear for the whole season, the trip can be made in little over three hours, yet those steamers have performed only single trips each day. There has been nothing in the world to prevent them from making return trips and thus affording a fair degree of convenience to the people they serve. It would be different if the straits were full of ice and the passage uncertain.

All freight must of course be sent on from Georgetown. This means that it has to be loaded and unloaded once often rather than necessary. But in addition it involves a greatly increased expenditure on the part of shippers. It has been estimated that this runs up to as much as $1,200 each in some half dozen individual cases, and that many other merchants are taxed to the extent of from $200 to $1,000 additional on their shipments during the winter.
As an instance it has been shown that the freight on a carload of stuff from Chicago to Charlottetown was $300, and of this amount $80 was paid for the carriage from Pictou. It will thus be seen that the increased rates on shipments via Georgetown are very considerable. When it is remembered that Georgetown is away in the east end of the island, and that by far the larger quantities of freight come in at Charlottetown and the west it will be seen that the majority of shippers are affected.

These merchants have been continually clamoring for the steamers to be sent to Charlottetown and finally on Saturday last, only a few days before having been given, the Stanley steamed into the harbor. There was a small quantity of freight ready but merchants were not prepared and of course could not send all the stuff they might otherwise have forwarded. However, they hustled about and gathered the goods to be sent out during the present week. Their annoyance may be imagined when orders were received from Ottawa sending the Stanley back to Georgetown, after having made only two trips to Charlottetown. The freight which had been brought to the capital for shipment was reloaded on cars and sent to Georgetown.

Under present arrangements passengers from the island take much more time and are put to extra expense.
These winter steamers are the only means of communication and of course the island people are at the mercy of them in charge.
In this case it would appear that the federal government is between the two opinions. The great number of island shippers who are complaining cannot be mistaken in their assertions and there is no doubt that the government is acting to the best of its knowledge in managing the steamers. The only conclusion which can then be reached is that the marine department is informed as to the true conditions, and if those island agitators were not so delicate about hurting the feelings of a few of their neighbors there would be less cause for complaint. There are in the little province a number of self-satisfied incompetents placed in positions of some authority, whose duty it is to advise the marine department on all branches of their work. These men, whose utter incapacity for satisfactory performance has been frequently exhibited in the past, and particularly within the last two months, seemingly care very little about pleasing the people, and strive only to run the steamers on that route which is easiest during the whole winter. It makes little difference to them whether Charlottetown harbor is open or not.
Georgetown is free from ice, and to Georgetown the steamers must go, and that is the natural route. This is the sort of information and advice upon which the government is acting. The marine department must necessarily be guided by its agents and unless there is cause to doubt the correctness of the reports made by these agents no improvements can be effected. Let the island people get after those among themselves who are responsible, show the government that the fossils now holding office are incompetent and there will be no further difficulty. Another good cause for complaint on the part of the Islanders is the telegraph service provided now and again by the Anglo-American Company. This consists of a single wire, and one miserable cable, a combination which could not be expected to produce satisfactory results. The cable at the present time is broken—the exclusive franchise still holds firm. Telegrams are sent by mail and from Pictou, by way of St. John. It is altogether a most delightful state of affairs for

THE NEW Y. M. C. A.

Unless work on the new Y. M. C. A. building is soon commenced the whole project, might as well be dropped. This undertaking has been dragging for so long a time that people are beginning to lose interest in it, and if there is to be still further delay the institution will not receive that support which it deserves. It is of course a poor plan to place a burden of debt on the Y. M. C. A., but in the present case it would appear that the men in charge are fully justified in going ahead. A proposition has been made that ten thousand dollars should be borrowed. A subscription of five hundred dollars annually will be available for the payment of interest on this mortgage for the next twenty years, and thus the ordinary revenue will not be disturbed.
By the end of twenty years a new generation of men will be in full enjoyment of the building and it is only right that they should be asked to do their share in paying for the privileges prepared for them. There will be no difficulty in meeting the indebtedness when the term of the mortgage expires.
Even with this amount raised by loan it will still be necessary to secure from $2,000 to $4,000 more for the completion of the building. But when citizens see the walls going up they will feel more like contributing, and so small an amount as is mentioned should not be regarded as an insurmountable obstacle.

VILLANELLE OF AUTUMN TWI-LIGHT.

The yellow of the maple tree Is silvered by a mist of rain . . .
Glad swallow, flown across the sea!
O soon the light shall cease to be—The garden lost . . . and then, how vain
The yellow of the maple tree!
The rising wind laments to me, Against the dim, uncertain pane . . .
Glad swallow, flown across the sea!
Why is this joy secured to thee?
Why, with swift wings, canst thou disdain
The yellow of the maple tree?
Of sun-bleached cities thou art free—Of purple shades, where kings have lain—
Glad swallow, flown across the sea!
Ah, well . . . It is thy Destiny
To mine—to watch, as Autumns wane,
The yellow of the maple tree . . .
Glad swallow . . . flown across the sea.

CUSTOMARY PLAN.

The Rev. Fourthly—My friend, where do you expect to go in the next world?
Knicker—Oh, I suppose mother and the girls will pick out the spot and I will run up for the weekends as usual.
A CAUSE FOR WORRY.
No, gentle reader, your friend's worried countenance is not caused by financial failure, mere moroseness, nor even lost love.
He is simply wondering whether he will land on a soft spot when he falls off the water wagon!

AN IMPRESSION.

"Now I have an impression in my head," said the teacher. "Can any of you tell me what an impression is?"
"Yes, I can," replied a little fellow at the foot of the class. "An impression is a dent in a soft spot."

THE DIFFICULTY.

Stella—Haven't you got anything for me?
Bella—No; I can't fit the price of what she gave me last year by seven and a half cents.

A VICTIM.

Knicker—So the poor fellow was frozen to death.
Bocker—Yes; he had wrapped all his clothes around the water pipe.

HE SCORED THAT TIME.

"Marie," said Farmer Kebec, as his better half started the curtain lecture, "I wish for you was an oyster!"
"What?" "What?" stammered his astonished spouse, "Why?"
"When do oyster he is in his bed, he shuts up, yes!"

ANNUAL MEETING OF
THE FTON BRANCH OF
AUXILIARY BIBLE SOCIETY

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 10.— The annual meeting of the Fredericton branch of the Auxiliary Bible Society was held this evening at the Opera House. The president of the society, Dr. Inch, presided and seated on the platform were the clergymen of the several Protestant denominations in the city and many others. An efficient orchestra under Professor Harrison rendered a musical programme. The house was well filled. Dr. Inch's annual address was of a high order and most appropriate to the occasion.
He announced that the society had elected for the ensuing year as officers: James S. Beek, honorary president; Dr. Inch, president; J. W. Spurdun and L. W. Johnson, vice presidents; secretary treasurer, Charles A. Sampson. The directors and executive were about the same as last year.
Secretary Sampson presented his report. It showed that the amount of collections in the city the past year amounted to $1,025.10. There was a balance on hand at the present time of $175.
Sub-Dean Street, in the absence of Conductor Bishop Richardson, read the Scriptures, followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. McConnell.
Rev. Mr. Keating of St. John addressed the meeting at length, giving a most excellent account of the work and needs of the Bible Society. At the conclusion of his speech he was tendered a vote of thanks, moved by Dr. Creed, seconded by J. W. Spurdun.
The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Canon Cowie.

SUCCEEDS MURDERED PREFECT

Drachewsky Takes Place of Von der Launitz in St. Petersburg—Hotel Seare.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 10.—Gen.
Drachewsky, now Prefect of Taganrog, and formerly Russian Inspector-General of Railways in Finland, has been appointed Prefect of St. Petersburg, to fill the place of the late Gen. von der Lantitz. It was thought that Gen. Reinhold, Prefect of Moscow, would receive the appointment, but it was decided that it was necessary to have him in Moscow during the elections.
The residents of the Grand Hotel, St. Petersburg, had an exciting experience at 4 o'clock this morning. A servant, hearing a revolver shot, went to a room on the second floor and found the door locked. Through the keyhole he saw a young man engaged in burning the leaves of a notebook and sent for the police. The occupant of the room twice through the door and shouted that he would throw a bomb.
The residents of the hotel at once nearly packed a few things in their handbags and rushed out into the snow. As the man continued firing the police retreated. Then ten soldiers were brought into the yard and fired volleys into the room. Eventually the firemen were summoned and broke down the door, through the ceiling. The man was found dead, with a revolver bullet in his brain.

the Mount Allison University students was held in the Memorial chapel, when a handsome silver shield was presented in the Marathon road race. Howard over the meeting and the presentation was made by another senior, George Patterson. Professor Hutton was pre-seventh is the men's band, no restricwill be present. Band to Band to-A committee from the Municipal Folkings of Sudholm, Warden Palmer treasurer of the Municipal Council, appeared in reference to nine patients from the different parishes who are now in the Provincial Hospital and whose maintenance is sought to be charged against the parishes. Each councillor stated his objections—some saying the patients had no legal settlement, others that some of the patients were dangerous lunatics and therefore not chargeable to the parishes. The premier stated there was no disposition on the part of the commissioners to make any charges against the counties

A delegation from the Tourist Asso-application for an increased grant.

They urged that they should be given the province.

After a short deliberation the govern-

One hundred and fifty dollars of this amount will be devoted towards the forth the attractions of Maine and New Brunswick as tourist resorts. Pic-cutting operations, a moose hunt and other views showing our varied charms will be shown in the saloons of the big hotels in the south, and an influx of travel this way is expected to result.

Mr. Beane was in the city yesterday and had an interview with the Tourist

PARIS, Jan. 10.—Admiral Togo, in being altogether Japanese, has been wholly French in a little international incident, which has evoked a degree of appreciation that could not be more typically French unless it were Japanese. He was asked for a souvenir for the Marine Museum. He responded by sending a French horticulturist in his employ not a weapon, but an aquatic ornament for the Art Museum.
Admiral Togo is said to possess the most beautiful nymphaeas in Japan. He sent seedlings from his garden as a gift to Paris for the winter mirrors of the interior corner of Petit Palais, the elegance of which has charmed Paris.
