After a lengthy discussion the report was adopted.

The temperance committe report was then brought up for discussion. Rev. A. B. McDonald thought the report very intemperate, and moved that it be handed back to an enlarged committee for modification. This resolution was debated in no mild terms by the ministers. Revs. R. M. Bynon and M. Addison spoke in favor of the report as it

Rev. E. K. Ganong spoke against the report, and said that this convention had no right to dictate to any government as to how they should co duct the business of the country, and as a religious body they had no right to interfere on this prohibition question, as it would stir up a feeling among the brethren

Rev. Mr. Cahill replied in an eloquent address in favor of the committee's re-port, and said: "There was not a rum seller in the province but what could say Amen to all Rev. E. K. Ganong had said." He said he was a liberal, but if his vote could upset the Laurier government at Ottawa he would upset it at once for its trickery, and put in a better class of men. Bro. T. H. Hall then spoke against the report in much the same strain as the other speakers on that side. Bro. M. C. Barnes spoke in favor of the report, and Rev. J. H. Hughes

The resolution of Rev. A. B. McDo ald's was put to the convention and carried

The following were added to the committee: Dr. M. C. McDonald, Rev. C. A. Cahill, Rev. M. Addison, Rev. S. H. Cornwall, Rev. W. E. Hall, and Rev. E. K. Ganong.
