COLOMBIAN FORCES SWEEP BY GUNS OF WARSHIPS.

Panama, Colombia, Nov. 12.—The first American casualties as a result of the revolution occurred yesterday. The Colombian fleet captured a boat having on board correspondence showing the whereabouts of two revolutionary schooners loaded with provisions. The government warships headed for the place and on arriving there the Bogota, manned by an American crew, commanded by Captain Marambaque, lowered two boats with armed men, but as the schooners were aground they waited until high tide to attack them. In the meanwhile the revolutionists were discovered in ambush close to the beach and when the Bogota's boats pulled ahead the second time the rebels opened fire, killing the ship's armorer, Richard Kane, of Washington, and wounding George Walker, who was shot through the leg.

THE CASE IN A NUTSHELL.
The death of Mrs. K. F. Adams from poison led to the trial of Molineux. Harry Cornish, who lived with Mrs. Adams and her daughter, Mrs. Florence Rogers, received a bottle of bromo seltzer by mail. He carried it home and Mrs. Adams took it to cure a headache and died. It contained cyanide of mercury. The theory of the prosecution was that Molineux intended to kill Cornish, who was one of his enemies in the Knickerbocker A. C., and that Molineux had previously poisoned Barnett, another K. A. C. man, who had been friendly with Mrs. Molineux before her marriage. The defence introduced a witness, at the last trial, who swore she saw the poison package mailed and that the man who mailed it was not Molineux but resembled Cornish. The acquittal will be regarded by most New Yorkers as a Scotch verdict. "Not proven."
