"THE DAILY TRIBUNE" he opening number of which we present to our readers to day, is intended to be a journal worthy of the patronage of all resectable classes of our community. It shall he the Editor's aim to so conduct it that the commercial, industrial and social nterests of the Dominion may be advanced, while its management shall know neither party, nationality nor sect. THE DAILY TRIBUNE will support all sound legislative easures, wherever they may originate, and oppose every scheme prejudicial to the public good, by whatever political party it may be upheld. While Dominion and Provincial affairs will thus be fully and impartially treated, special attention will be
