British have invaded and captured some territory in the south. A new agreement with Russia it is said has been made by the advisors of the Shah, who is to remain in residence at Teneraz. Meanwhile, the mative priests and liberal chieftains under the influence of German and Turkish agents, are trying to form a national army to drive out the Russians and English, declaring that death is between than subjection to foreigners.

German Decay Duck. So los in Antwerp, where the Bocher reigns supreme, the inhabitants are supposed to read only two local papers approved by the "komman dantur." But the inhabitants read the forbidden sournals all the same, and, pass them on Tfom one to another. One day lately a woman tose in a crowded tramway-car, and exical med. "Someone has stolen my handbag!" A German officer and some seldiers who "happened" to be on the platform came to the lady's assistance and ordered the passen gers to turn out their pockets. They did not find the bag, but they stressed two of Antwerp's citizens with prohibited newspapers in their possession. The lady was a German delective. German Decoy Duck.

Captured Gues!

The reason why so computatively small a number of German's ups are on exhibition in this country is that so many have been captured and they are, in such good condition that it has been count while making special ammunition for them and putififf them into service against their offishal owners.

TRENCH JOURNALS.

"Pow Wow," "Pip-Squraks," and the "Gasper" Among the Number. The editors of many of the curious little trench journals, which are being brought out, in ever-increasing numbers by our soldiers at the front, have a perfect genies for inventing queer and bizarre titles for their pub-queet and bizarre titles for their publications.

Some of these, though certainly strange-sounding, are at least under standable. The "Pow-Wow," for instance, which is the trench journal of the 20th Battalion" Royal Fusiliers, conveys some sort of an intelligible ded to most people. But the same cannot be said of the "Lead-Swing er," which, its sub-title informs us, is "The Bivouac Journal of the 1-3" West Ridding Field ambulance." Is "lead-swinger," Army slang for an intelligible and the same of the said of the "Lead-Swing er," which, its sub-title informs us, is "The Bivouac Journal of the 1-3" West Ridding Field ambulance." Is "lead-swinger," Army slang for affirmhulance man?" Or what?

"Pip Squeaks" is another puzzling fitle, intil one learns incidentally, on glancing through its inside pages, that "pip-squeak" is a special kind of small German shell, so called by Tommy from the noise it makes when
