

if deemed satisfactory, be signed by a Judge, and shall thereupon be deemed a sufficient discharge to the Assignees of all liability on their part in connection with such estate.

21. The Master shall have power to compel the attendance of the Bankrupt at all meetings of the creditors where his presence shall be necessary, by warrant under his hand and seal, directed to any Sheriff or Constable, to be carried out by personal arrest when necessary.

22. When any Insolvent has made an assignment of his estate and effects, for the benefit of his creditors, previous to the passing of this act, and may have creditors who have not come into such assignment, it shall be lawful for such Insolvent to petition a Judge of the Supreme Court, and such Judge shall, on receipt of such petition, require a Master of the Court for the County where the petitioner resides to call a meeting of such creditors as have not come into the assignment, by due notice, as in the second section of this act, for the purpose of examining into the affairs of such petitioner, and to report the result of such examination to such Judge; and if it shall appear to such Master that the petitioner had acted bona fide and agreeably to law in the distribution of the estate, and that no charge of fraud can be substantiated against him by such creditors, and it be reported by him to the Judge that such examination was satisfactory, such Judge shall, on application of the petitioner, grant him a certificate, which shall be of the same character; and have the same effect, as the certificate mentioned in the twelfth section of this act. Provided, however, that if such creditors are dissatisfied with the report of the Master, it shall be lawful for them to request an examination of the Insolvent, to be had before the Judge; or if the report of the Master shall be opposed to the application of the petitioner, that the petitioner shall be at liberty to offer himself for examination before the Judge; and on such examination of the
