

Oct., 1886, Mr. C. was elected to a fellowship at Trinity Coll. for his attainments in physical work. His first appt. outside of his Univ. was that of Demonstrator in Physics at the Cavendish Laboratory, Jan., 1887. The yrs. 1887-91, inclusive, were mainly spent in the work of research. During this time Prof. C. was also active in literary work, contributing papers, chiefly on Thermometry, to the "Phil. Trans., R.S.," 1887; and 1891, to the "Prov. R. S.;" to the Phil Mag., and other publications. That widely useful body, the Cambridge Univ. Extension Syndicate, in the furtherance of the work of education, next claimed his services, and during the session 1892-83 he lectured for the syndicate on the subjects of Astronomy, Electricity and Magnetism. In Jan., 1893, he was apptd. Prof. of Physics at the Royal Holloway Coll. for Women, resigning that position in the fall of 1893, to come to Montreal as W. C. McDonald Prof. of Physics in McGill Univ. He was elected a Fellow of the Royal Soc., 1894. Besides his eminence in the scientific world, he takes high rank in the field of athletics and sports, having represented his sch. in the rifle-shooting contests at Wimbledon during 3 yrs., and in gymnastic competition at Aldershot, 1882. He also represented his Univ. in the Cambridge and Oxford shooting contests, at Wimbledon, for 4 yrs., 1883-86, and played in the Cambridge lacrosse team against Oxford during 4 seasons, 1885-88. He m., May, 1894, Victoria Mary, eld. dau. of Alex. Stewart, of Saundersfoot.—62 Hutchison St., Montreal.

CALVIN, Hiram Augustus, merchant and legislator, is the s. of the late D. D. Calvin, who represented Frontenac in the Ont. Assembly for a considerable period, by his second wife, Marion Breck. B. at Garden Island, Ont., April 6, 1851, he was ed. at the public sch. there, at the Woodstock Lit. Inst., and at Queen's Univ., and commenced his business career under his father, whom he succeeded as a lumber merchant, ship-builder and forwarder. He has been Reeve of Garden Island continuously since 1884, and represented Frontenac in the Ho. of Commons, 1892-96, when he declined renomination. Although nominally a supporter of the Con. party, he was throughout perfectly independent in his parliamentary course, and voted against the Govt. on the tariff and on the Man. sch. question. Mr. C. was one of the promoters of the Kingston Foundry and Machinery Co., 1890. He is a gov. of the Kingston Hospital, a trustee of Queen's Univ., and Vice-Chairman of the Sch. of Mining and Agriculture, Kingston. A mem. of the Presb. Ch., he m. Apl., 1879, Annie W., dau. of Rev. D. Marsh, Quebec.—Garden Island, Ont.

CAMERON, Alexander, M.D., legislator, was b. in Pictou, N.S., 1834, and is descended from the Camerons of Lochiel. He was ed. principally at Glasgow Univ., and took his degree of M.D. there, 1863. He has practised his profession for many yrs. at Huntingdon, P.Q., of which village he has been Mayor almost uninterruptedly since 1870. He was elected Warden 1882. Dr. C. was first returned to the Quebec Assembly for Huntingdon May, 1874, as a Nationalist, and continued to hold a seat in that chamber up to the g. e. 1892, when he was defeated by Hon. G. W. Stephens. He was again defeated at the g. e. 1897. Formerly a Lib. Con., he afterwards supported the late Mr. Mercer during his Admn. up to the time of his dismissal, when he returned to his former political relationship. He is a mem. of the Council of Pub. Inst. for P.Q., and was formerly Asst.-Surg. of the 50th Batt., V. M. A mem. of the Presb. Ch., he m. 1866, Elizabeth, eld. dau. of the late Rev. Alex. Wallace, A.M., of St. Andrew's Ch., Huntingdon.—Huntingdon, P.Q.

CAMERON, Rev. Archibald A. (Bapt.), is the young s. of the late