

Science, 1879), and was called to the Ont. bar, 1883. In the same year he was called to the bar of the N. W. T., and has since practised at Calgary, being now a member of the firm of McCaul & Short. He is Law Examiner for the N. W. T., and was created a Q. C., by the Earl of Derby, 1890. He has published various essays on scientific and other subjects, including one in the Am. Meteorol. Journ. on "South Alberta and the Climatic Effects of the Chinook Winds," and others in the Can. Law Times on "Constitutional Law in the Territories," "The Territories' Real Property Act," etc. He is a mem. of the Ch. of Eng., and m. May, 1887, Frances, dau. of E. G. Greenwood, Halifax, N.S.—Ranchman's Club, Calgary, N. W. T.

MCCLEARY, Hon. James Thompson, legislator, of Scotch-Irish origin, is the s. of Thompson McCleary, by his wife, Sarah McCutcheon. B. at Ingersoll, Ont., Feb. 5, 1853, he was ed. at the High Sch. there, and at McGill Univ. A teacher by profession, he taught for some yrs. in Wisconsin, being for 2 yrs. Supdt. of Pierce Co. Schs.; he resigned in 1881 to become State Inst. Conductor of Minn., and Prof. of History and Pol. Science in the State Normal Sch. at Mankato, continuing in these positions until June, 1892. During the summer vacations he conducted Insts. in Wisconsin, the Dakotas, Virginia, Tennessee and Colorado. In 1888 he published "Studies in Civics," which is largely used in the principal schs. of the U.S. In 1891 he was chosen Presdt. of the Minn. Educational Assn. He is also Presdt. of the Mankato Social Science Club. Mr. McC. was elected to the 53rd Congress of the U. S. for the 2nd Dist. of Minn., as a Rep., receiving 18,207 votes, as against 11,299 votes cast for the candidate of the Dem. party, 6268 votes for the Populist, and 1833 votes for the Prohibitionist candidates.—Mankato, Minn., U. S.; or, Washington, D. C. (the latter during the sessions of Congress).

"An able writer and a brilliant and progressive educationalist."—Can. Am.

MCCLELLAN, His Honour Abner Reid, Lt.-Gov. of New Brunswick, is the young s. of the late Peter McClellan, by his wife, Miss Robinson, and was b. at Hopewell, N.B., Jan. 4, 1831. The family on the male side emigrated to N.S., from Londonderry, Irel., towards the close of the last century. Ed. at Hopewell, and at Mount Allison Acad., of which inst. he was for several yrs. one of the governors, and was elected first Presdt. of the Alumni Assn.; he went into commerce, and was for many yrs. a successful merchant at Hopewell. A Lib. in politics, he entered the N. B. Assembly as one of the representatives for Albert, 1854, and sat until the union, 1867. He was Chief Commr. of Public Works in the Tilley Admn., 1866-67, and assisted in carrying the Province in reference to Confederation. He was called to the Senate by Royal Proclamation, May, 1867, and remained a mem. of that body up to his appt. as Lt.-Gov. of N.B., Dec. 9, 1896. He served as Chairman of the Provl. Tax Comn., 1892. His Honour favours the establishment of a permanent international peace tribunal. He is not in close connection with any religious denomination, but his sympathies are with all Christian work. He m. 1876, Anna B., dau. of the late W. J. Reid, Collector of Customs, Port Harvey, N.B.—Government House, Fredericton, N.B.

"A dignified, thoughtful public man."—Province.

MCCLELLAND, Rev. Alexander Miller (Presb.), is the s. of Alex. and Elizabeth McClelland, of Toronto, and formerly of Cookestown, Tyrone, Irel. B. near Galt, Ont., Aug. 8, 1851, he was ed. at U. C. Coll., and at the Univ. of Toronto (B.A., with honours in Classics, Metaph. and Ethics, 1874). He took part of his theol. course at Knox Coll. in conjunction with Arts, won a bursary in Bib. Ch. History, in the 2nd year of his divinity course, and was elected prize Scrip-