before and to the satisfaction of the said Collector or Chief Officer, and by their oath or affirmation (which such Collector or Officer is hereby authorized to administer) shall satisfy him that they are respectively resi- 5 dents in this Province and each worth double the amount of the penalty of such bond over and above all their debts and liabilities, personal and real: Provided always, that every such master may, if the said passenger be 10 a member of an emigrating family, relieve himself from making and executing such bond, by the payment to the said Collector or Chief Officer of the sum of shillings currency, for each such passenger. 15 so specially reported, and not otherwise.

Money paid
for the support of any such passenger may be recovered under the bond.

XI. And be it enacted, That in case any Passenger, for whom any bond shall have been given as aforesaid, shall, at any time within years from the execution thereof, 20 become chargeable upon this Province, or upon any municipality, village, city, town, or county, or upon any charitable institution within this Province, the payment of such charge or expense incurred for the maintain- 25 ance and support of such Passenger shall be provided for out of the moneys collected on and under such bond, to the extent of the penalty therein contained, or such portion thereof as shall be required for the pay- 30 ment of such charges or expenses.

Penalty on master neither giving the bond nor paying the commutation
money.

£100.

XII. And be it enacted, That if the master of any vessel, on board of which such Passenger specially reported as aforesaid, shall have been carried, shall neglect or 35 refuse to execute the said bond, or to pay the commutation money in lieu thereof, forthwith, after the said ship shall have been reported to the said Collector or Chief Officer, such master shall incur a penalty of 40 currency, and the said vessel shall not be cleared on her return voyage until the said Bond shall have been executed, or the commutation money in lieu
