My dear General Woodford:

I was sorry that having left the dining room of the Astor for a short time on the evening of the Canadian Club banquet, I missed seeing you again before you left.

I wish to express my very sincere appreciation of your all too generous words in reference to the few remarks I made. It was a courtesy for which I shall always be grateful, and I would like you to know that I value very much the good will of which it was so generous an expression.

Were it not presumptuous for one so much younger to do so, I would like to say how much, in common with all the others present, I was impressed by your own powerful utterances. It is indeed fortunate for the Peace movement that it has advocates like yourself.

With kind regards, believe me,
Yours very truly,

(Sgd.) W. L. MACKENZIE KING.
