16th September 1891

Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 9th instant, enclosing your report on the Indian school at Point Bleue, for the month of August last; and in reply, I have to inform you that, with a view to improving the progress of the pupils, you and the Teacher should endeavour to secure a more regular attendance.

Your obedient Servant,
W. A. Johnston

for the Deputy of the Superintendent of Indian Affairs

L. E. Olin Esq.
Indian Agent,
